Mrs. Anderson Honored At Tea

Mrs. Ed Anderson, who was recently elected national treasurer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, was honored at a tea on Saturday afternoon, June 16, at the Colvard Hotel in West Jefferson. Officers and members of the Woman's Club of West Jefferson were hostesses for this occasion.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Anderson, the honoree, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney of Kings Mountain, president of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Ivey Moore of North Wilkesboro, president of District 3; Mrs. Bob Draughton, president of the West Jefferson club; also Mrs. Elizabeth Ba Lowe, vice-president, and Mrs. Bob Farish, secretary-treasurer, officers of the hostess club.

Mrs. Salter and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller poured tea and served dainty refreshments from a beautifully appointed tea table.

A musical program was presented during the afternoon by Mrs. Sharpe Shemake, Mrs. Gale McMillan, and Mrs. Mary M. McNeill. Officers and special guests from the various Federated Women's Clubs in the district, were the invited guests.

Those attending from the Worth-while Woman's Club of Boone included Mrs. Herman Wilcox, Mrs. Wayne Richardson, Mrs. B. W. Stallings, Mrs. Roberta Ray, and Mrs. A. E. South.

Kepharts Fete Camp Personnel

Dr. and Mrs. Kephart entertained the personnel of Camp Yonahlossee, made up of 140 campers and 35 staffers, on last Wednesday evening at their home.

The crowd came in four different groups and each group had many of the interesting objects brought from foreign countries and were then shown around the house and finally given refreshments on the front terrace.

The pre-season crowd, who were in camp for three weeks will be leaving on the 25th. On the 27th another group of 140 will arrive for the eight weeks period.

Miss Mast, Mr. Dietrich Married

St. Thomas Lutheran Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruby Faye Mast and the Rev. H. K. Dietrich, Jr. The ceremony, performed by the groom's father, the Rev. H. K. Dietrich, Sr., took place on Friday, June 1, at 7:30 p. m.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore a floor-length gown of chandilly lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil was attached to a lace coronet. She carried a prayer book covered with satin and topped with a purple orchid. Miss Dorothy Mae Dietrich, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. Armand Downing served as best man. Ushers were Robert Gadd, William Gadd, and Benton Watson.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mast of Rominger, is a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College. She is a member of the faculty of Pleasant Gardens High School in Marion.

Rev. Mr. Dietrich is a graduate of Concordia College, Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Concordia Theological Seminary of St. Louis, Mo. He is pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Marion.

The couple are making their home in Marion.

Cove Creek Club To Meet Tonight

The Cove Creek Community Development Club will meet Thursday at 7:45 p. m. in the high school cafeteria. All citizens are urged to attend.

The community signs are being constructed and we would like to have representatives from Phillips Branch and Brushy Fork present to help us establish our community boundary.

An interesting program will be presented.

Johnson Teaches

County. Before that he served as principal of Bethel School at Sugar Grove.

Mr. Johnson has had two years service in the army, one of these spent in Europe. He is married to Edith Lucille Parker, and they have two sons, Walter III, age 5, and John Roby, age 2. They will move to Wingate for the summer school and live on the Marshville highway where they have purchased a home.

Dr. Smith said that Wingate is indeed fortunate to secure the services of Mr. Johnson, who has proven himself a good teacher and one who is genuinely interested in the development of the individual students. He is a member of a Baptist church and has been very active in the church work wherever he has been.

So This Is New York

flails for beating by hand the wheat and oats; a man's boot nailed to a post and used as an early mail box; jacks to elevate the family carriage when it broke down in the plain-dirt road; and wide, flat wooden paddles for patting feather beds into shape after the tussling of the night.

Senator Stuart Symington said that the first time he paid a call on the lady who is now his wife, the former, Eve Wadsworth, he was greeted at the door by a butler in white gloves. "I thought he was her father, Senator Wadsworth, and shook hands with him warmly," Symington said. "I made a poor impression on the father but I made a lifetime friend out of that butler."

This sidewalk superintendent stuff would be funny if it were not so elaborate nowadays. At Park Avenue and 52nd Street a new building is going up, and the fence surrounding the job is equipped with concave plexiglass bubbles arranged so that short, medium-height and tall watchers can view the goings-on from the sidewalk. Not only this, but the rubberneckers hear records played softly, while a voice tells the history of the site from the time of old Pet Peg-Leg Stuyvesant. Then a version of the same commentary is given over the loud-speaker in French.

Fairview Club Holds Meeting

The Fairview Home Demonstration Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Elbert Norris. The meeting was called to order by the president. For devotions Miss Iris Norris read from the fifth chapter of Mathews.

Mrs. P. E. Bingham gave a report on frozen peaches and Mrs. George Moetz gave a demonstration on household hints. Mrs. Norris, assisted by Mrs. Emma Carroll and Mrs. Dorman Winkler, served refreshments to seven members and two visitors.
