McGuires Feted At Reception

Cavendish, Idaho,-About 150 people attended the reception June 17 honoring the Diamond Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. McGuire in the Cavendish Methodist Church basement.

After the reception a potluck supper was served for the many out-of-town guests, friends and re-

Ernest E. McGuire married Minnie H. King in Mable, N. C., June 14, 1896, and moved to the Cavendish area in the spring of 1902. They have lived there since and been engaged in farming and cattle raising.

Mr. McGuire was overseer for the roads in that area until formation of the old North Fork Highway District in 1909. He then served as district highway director until 1924. Roads built under his supervision include the Cavendish grade, Peck grade, Freeman Creek Group To Meet grade, and many others.

Mr. McGuire has been Democratic precinct committeeman since 1915 and Mrs. McGuire has backed him all the way. She is well-known for her out-going personality and Miss Hollar, Mr.

The main recreation for Mr McGuire is hunting with his various hounds, and he has bee widely known in this area for his ability to bag cougar, lynx cats, coyotes and other wild animals. He followed this avocation nearly evering eggs last week.

Mr. McGuire is 82 and Mrs. Mc-Guire is 79.

Their four children, Mrs. Edns Edelman of Orofino, Alonzo E. Mc-Guire of Longbeach, Mrs. Georgia Reece and James McGuire of Cavendish, were present at the celeof their six grandchildren and four of their seven great-grandchildren. (Note: The McGuires are natives of Watauga County.)

RICE-LAMB SKILLET DINNER

- 11/2 pounds lamb shoulder 1 clove garlic, split
- 1 tablespoon shortening 2 thblespoons minced onions
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- pound (2 med.) tomatoes % cup uncooked rice
- cups fresh or frozen peas 2 tablespoons minced parsley
- 11/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper ¼ teaspoon basil
- 1% cups water

Remove bone and excess fat from meat and cut into small cubes or slices.

Brown meat and garlic in heated shortening in large skillet. Remove garlic. Add onions and celery and cook 5 minutes longer, stirring frequently to prevent overbrowning. Remove skin from tomatoes and cut into small pieces. Add to meat. Bring to a boil. Lower heat; cover and simmer slowly for about 80 ninutes, or until meat is tender.

Add remaining ingredients in order listed. Again bring mixture to a boil and lower heat. Cover and simmer about 20 minutes, or until rice and peas are tender. Yields six servings.
