IN 5 MINUTES YOU CAN MAKE CREAMY FAILURE PROOF FUDGE

You can make fudge, America's favorite candy, that's failure proof and always creamy smooth in just five minutes with this simple recipe.

In this Chocolate Mint Fudge it's the evaporated milk that gives the creamy smoothness which in old-fashioned fudge required long, vigorous beating. You'll get perfect results every time without using a candy thermometer or soft ball test.

Cold weather is traditionally the season for making candy at home. With this quick recipe you'll want to make Chocolate Mint Fudge often for family members, for visitors and for holiday gifts. Remember, the most appreciated gift is often the one you make yourself.

FIVE-MINUTE CHOCOLATE MINT FUDGE (MAKES ABOUT 2 POUNDS)

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 2/3 cup (small) unsifted powdered milk
- 1-2/3 cups sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 cups (about 161 dried marshmallows)
- 1 1/2 cups (1 1/2 8-ounce packages) semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Combine butter, evaporated milk, sugar and salt in 2 1/2 quart heavy saucepan over medium heat. Bring to a boil. Cook 4 to 5 minutes, stirring constantly. (Start timing when mixture starts to "bubble" around edges of pan.) Remove from heat. Stir in marshmallows, chocolate chips, peppermint extract and nuts. Stir vigorously for 1 minute or until marshmallows are completely melted and blended. Pour into 9-inch square butter pan and allow to cool. Cut into squares. Top each square with a colored nut water if you want to make the fudge extra festive.
