Summer Band Program To Start On June 17

The Appalachian Senior High and Elementary Schools announce another Summer Band Program starting June 17th. Under the direction of Mr. J. Perry Watson, Director of Bands, the band classes will have many varied features which will appeal to students and their parents alike.

Now is the best time for beginning students to take up the study of an instrument. The regular school schedule does not have ample time for instructing beginners. This time can be offered during the vacation period. More individual attention can be secured as more time is allowed per class. There will be a great deal of outside help in connection with the Band Camp Instruction Staff from Valle Crucis and there is more concentrated study of an instrument.

Mr. Watson and his staff will offer also a detailed Intermediate Band Course for those who have been playing a band instrument and desire further advancement. This is aimed at those boys and girls who need additional study and desire individual help and attention.

As stated above, band will begin on Monday morning, June 17 at 8:30 in the Elementary School band room, and will include full band experience, group study, individual attention, supervised practice and Strobocorn instruction. Mr. Watson and a staff of four band directors will be on hand to instruct and all interested students and parents are cordially invited to attend.
