MRS. ROGER KILBY MCGUIRE

Miss Carol Sandra Mackie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Harley Mackie was married Friday evening to Mr. Roger Kilby McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wright McGuire of Boone.

The candlelight ceremony at seven-thirty o'clock in the Granite Falls First Baptist Church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Homer E. Bradey, assisted by Rev. Bruce D. Sapp of Raleigh, brother-in-law of the groom.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Robert Rogers, organist, and Mrs. Neal Cape, vocalist, before the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of hand clipped chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline encrusted with sequins and pearls. A bouffant skirt of diagonal lace tiers floated over an underskirt of ruffled net and extended into a chapel train. The fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a pearl and sequin tiara, and was trimmed with French lace. The bride carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias and centered with a white orchid. As her only ornament the bride wore a gold pendant, a gift of her father to her mother before their marriage.

Miss Martha Setzer of Chattanooga, Tennessee was Maid of Honor. Her waltz-length gown of pure silk organza in emerald glaze was designed with a fitted peaked bodice, surplice V neckline. The harem hemline was caught up with tiny self bows. The head-dress was a circle of ivy with white mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ala Sue McGuire, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Sylvia Kirby, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Leonard Harris and Mrs. Robert Payne. Little Miss Maelyn Humphrey of Greenville, South Carolina, cousin of the bride was flower girl. Their gowns and headdresses were the same as that of the honor attendant, and all carried white chrysanthemums mixed with ivy.

The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Phillip McGuire, Groomsman included Clifford Kepler, Stuart Tugman, Mark Hodges, and Charles Taylor of Boone. Richard Holland, of Raleigh, cousin of the groom, and Wayne Bean of Granite Falls. Michael Mackie, cousin of the bride was junior groomsman.

Mrs. Mackie wore a silk peau de soie sheath gown in Lagoon blue enhanced by chantilly lace appliques touched with small bows worn with a sequin hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was a pink orchid.

Mrs. McGuire wore a navy peau de soie sheath gown with lace trim and matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid with yellow throat.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Grover C. Kirby wore a mauve silk gown with lace trim with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. M. A. Mackie, the bride's paternal grandmother wore a sapphire blue lace gown with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. G. M. McGuire the groom's paternal grandmother wore a navy lace gown with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a 1955 graduate of
