Watauga Voters Will Go To Polls In Big Numbers

County Slate Is Headed By Senate Race

Watauga voters will go to the polls Tuesday, along with those from all the States in the Union to elect local officials and ballot on the Presidential slates of elec-

Indications are that a heavy vote will result in Watauga county, where the division of strength has been fairly close between the two parties for many years, and since the Presidential race has attracted so much interest, it is expected that more than the seven thousand and some who voted two years ago, will appear at the polls.

In the county Gordon H. Winkler, Democrat, of Boone, is running for the 29th District State Senate Seat and is being opposed by J. W. Norris, also of Boone Voters in Ashe and Alleghany counties also ballot in this race.
