Woman's Club Holds Party

The Boone Woman's Club held its annual Christmas party in the adult assembly room of Boone Methodist Church, with Mrs. John Houck, president, presiding at the business session.

The hall was decorated with arrangements of Christmas ornaments and evergreen. The punch bowl centered the table which was covered with a white linen cloth. Curved branches of balsam interspersed with small red berry-clusters and pine cones encircled the crystal bowl, which was flanked by crystal holders with lighted red candles. Dainty sandwiches and cookies decorated with red and green fillings and icings were served to the guests.

A small silver Christmas tree stood on a table at one end of the hall. Under it were Christmas gifts which the members exchanged with each other.

Mrs. Orus Sutton and Mrs. W. L. High presented a program of Christmas stories and poems, and the meeting closed with carol singing.

Hostesses were Mrs. Lester Carroll, Mrs. Wiley Hartzog, Mrs.

Dave Mast, Mrs. Wiley Smith and Mrs. Bert Ellis.

Adult education hailed as build-up of schools.
