MRS. JOHN HOUSTON STEPP

Miss Mary Ann Thayer, of Miami, Florida and Boston, Massachusetts became the bride of Mr. John Houston Stepp at their 4:00 o'clock wedding ceremony in St. Elisabeth Catholic Church, Boone December 10.

The ceremony was performed by Father Francis T. Connolly of this parish.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Benjamin and Mrs. Victoria Thayer of Miami, Florida and Boston, Massachusetts. She was given in marriage by Dr. Lawrence Owsley resident of Boone, an immediate friend of the family. The bride is in the graduate school at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Her portrait wedding gown was fashioned in several miniature panels of silk organza which billowed gracefully into a princess-style reaching floor length creating the illusion of a diminutive train. She wore a full crown of crystalized embedded seed-pearl chips from which was attached her finger-tip veil. The bride's bouquet was made up of white pom-poms with white satin streamers and her detachable going away corsage which was effectively centered in the bouquet with an identical arrangement, complemented her outfit.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Nancy Starr of Raleigh who was the Maid of Honor. She wore an emerald green street-length dress with matching satin slippers and veiled ribbon hat. She carried a bouquet of varying autumn colored pom-poms with matching satin streamers.

The best man for Mr. Stepp was Mr. David Balzer of Elkin, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Daily, New Jersey; and Al Robillard, Rhode Island. All attendants at the wedding are students at Appalachian State Teachers College. Soloist for the wedding was Miss Ruth Hartley, Opopka, Florida and she was accompanied by organist Mrs. Stephan Vaughn, Greensboro, both of whom were under the direction of Mr. Earny Hotard of Appalachian State Teachers College.

The guest book was kept by Miss Linda Sue Smith, Clintwood, Virginia, who also assisted at the reception by serving punch. The director for the wedding was Miss

DAR Honors Mrs. Fuller

Mountain City, Tenn., Dec. 24.—Members of the local United Daughters of the Confederacy and Daughters of the American Revolution combined their regular December meetings this year for a joint Christmas program and to honor Mrs. Selmer (Rose) Fuller, who celebrated her fiftieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, December 13.

Mrs. Fuller was one of the original organizers of both the UDC and the DAR, as well as of the American Legion Auxiliary. The meeting, held last Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. R. Butler, had Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Fuller as hostesses.

Members and guests were greeted at the door by Miss Cettie Keys, Mrs. Ray Shoun, Mrs. Butler, and Mrs. Fuller. The Butler home, always beautifully and tastefully appointed, was artistically decorated in the Christmas motif, simple yet striking.

Miss Keys, program chairman, introduced Mrs. R. P. Donnelly who, for the devotional thought, read "Glorious Christmas," after which Mrs. W. B. Mount offered prayer.

Recordings of Confederate songs and music was then given by James R. Butler, Jr.

Mrs. J. C. Rambo was then introduced, who eulogized both Mr. and Mrs. Fuller for all they have meant in the civic, religious, and educational life of the community. Mrs. Rambo, when a girl of about eleven, was a guest at the wedding dinner given by the parents of Mr. Fuller the evening of their marriage.

After these remarks, Mrs. Rambo, on behalf of the members of both organizations, presented Mrs. Fuller with a gold brooch as a token of their respect and admiration for her and her selfless work.

Mrs. Fuller, in response to this favor, gave a brief resume of her colorful life and eventful life, from her childhood days in North Carolina, through her school years and the span of her teaching experience, her meeting Mr. Fuller, her marriage, and of the years since, filled with many, many warm and unforgettable memories.

In closing, Mrs. Fuller, who has an inimitable speaking style all her own, stated that, if given the opportunity to relive her life, nothing she had said or done would be changed over the way events have gone up to date; that she was very well satisfied that she had done and said as she should.

Two others of those present, Mrs. I. W. Nave and Mrs. W. A. Davis, also have celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries.

Mrs. Mac Wright and Mrs. Paul Everett entertained with soft piano music while refreshments were served, buffet style, by Mrs. Ray Shoun, Mrs. W. B. Mount, Mrs. Paul Everett, Mrs. Tom Grayson, and Kathryn Butler.

Mrs. Fuller was tastefully dressed in an Alice blue taffeta and lace gown with golden slippers, with an orchid corsage.

TWINS TWICE IN 1 YEAR

Berkeley, Calif.—For the second time in one year the Harley Pedersen family is increased with twins.

A year ago 23-year-old Mrs. Kirsten Pedersen gave birth to her first set, both girls.

Again within the year she bore twins—this time a boy and a girl.

The father, a laboratory technician, is hoping income-tax benefits from both sets will help out with his extra expenses.

Gay Fruit Cocktail Pudding Cake

Next time you bake an oven dinner for the family, slip in this quick and easy fruit-flecked pudding cake. A light sponge cake batter holds colorful canned fruit cocktail throughout, with flaked coconut on top toasted to delightful crunchiness. "Fruit Cocktail Pudding Cake" can be served warm or cold with a fluff of whipped cream and garnished with fruit cocktail.

Beat 2 eggs with 1 teaspoon vanilla until light and fluffy. Gradually add 1 cup sugar, beating until thick and lemon-colored. Measure 3/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour; re-sift flour with 1/4 teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder. Stir into egg mixture. Thoroughly drain 1 (1 lb. 14 oz.) can fruit cocktail; measure out 1/4 cups fruit and fold into batter, reserving remaining fruit for garnish. Turn into buttered 9-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle 1 cup flaked coconut over top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes, until cake tests done. Cut in squares and serve warm or cold, topped with 1/2 pint (1 cup) heavy cream, whipped and sweetened to taste, and reserved fruit cocktail. Makes 8 servings.
