LONG RANGE POLARIS
The range of the Polaris missile to 2,800 miles by early 1964 is the hope of the American rocket experts.
Polaris missiles were tested in recent months with a range of 1, 200 miles. The most recent range reported is 1,700 miles.
Vice Adm. W. F. Raborn, head of the Polaris program said his program is being stepped up in order to achieve this a year sooner than originally expected.

QUEEN RAISES RENTS
Edinburgh, Scotland—Landowner Queen Elizabeth increased the rents of 25 of her Scottish tenant farmers. The farmers are paying up without a squeak.
They said the Queen spent $81, 200 on repairs and improvements to her properties last year. The rent increases apparently are to help recover some of these costs.

Legal Notices

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 153, Section 9, Sub-section 17, of the General Statutes of North Carolina, notice is hereby given by the Commissioners of the Town of Blowing Rock, North Carolina, that they will consider and pass upon the closing of that certain portion of one old Aho Road, which commences at the eastern margin of the Green Hill Road near the northwestern corner of the property of Elizabeth H. Mather, and extends in a northeasterly direction approximately parallel with Heather Ridge Lane to a point where said old road intersects Heather Ridge Lane, said portions to be closed being more fully described below, at their regular meeting to be held on the 4th day of January, at 7:30 o'clock P.
M.

Notice is further given that said Commissioners will hear from those advocating such closing and any persons who may oppose the same at said meeting, and in the event a decision is made to close the portions of said old road requested to be closed, they will enter an appropriate order whereupon all right, title and interest in that portion of said old road, which extends across Lots Nos. 1 through 6 inclusive, and the 22-foot strip adjoining Lot No. 1 on its southwest side, as shown by the plat hereinafter described, shall become the property of the Blowing Rock Improvement Company, and whereupon all right, title and interest in that portion of said old road which extends across Lots Nos. 7 through 11 inclusive, as shown by said plat, shall become the joint property of Betty Harper Arbuckle and G. Harper, Jr., and whereupon all right, title and interest in that portion of said old road which extends in front of the lot of Elizabeth H. Mather shall become the property of said Elizabeth H. Mather, the foregoing persons being the owners of all of the property of said Elizabeth H. Mather, the foregoing persons being the owners of all of the property adjacent to the portion of said old road sought to be closed.

Said portion of said old Aho Road sought to be closed in this proceeding is further described and bounded as follows:
Beginning in the eastern margin of Green Hill Road, near the northwest corner of the lot of Elizabeth H. Mather and near the southeast corner of Lot No.
1 of Heather Ridge as shown by plat recorded in Plat Book 3, page 30, Watauga County Registry, and entitled "Blowing Rock Improvement Company and
F. G. Harper Heirs, Blowing Rock, North Carolina," and running thence in a northeasterly direction approximately parallel with Heather Ridge Lane and at distances varying from approximately eighty feet to approximately one hundred sixty-five feet southeast of the southeastern margin thereof, to a point about the center of Lot No. 7 as shown by the above mentioned plat; thence from said point in a generally northerly direction to the eastern margin of Heather Ridge Lane and at near the northwest corner of Lot No.
9 and the southwest corner of Lot No. 10 as shown by said plat.
This the 29th day of November, 1960.

UNCLE PINKNEY

Year resolutions has lost hope, whether he aims to keep 'em or not. I ain't lost hope, Mister Editor, but I stay in a fog of confusion and indecision, sorter like our State Department, and I'm having a hard time gitting my resolutions in order. But I got one I'm going to suggest fer my old lady. Like all wimmen, she don't believe half she hears, so she always adds her half to it afore she passes it along. In 1961 I'm going to suggest she just pass it along as is. HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

Yours truly,

Farm Questions
And Answers

Question: Can the U. S. compete with Russia for world agricultural trade?
Answer—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said: "Russian agriculture will never overtake U. S. agriculture if we keep our system reasonably free and if Russia continues her present system."

Question: Why should I—with all my problems in my own backyard—be interested in U. S. agricultural trade programs?
Answer: Because this trade reaches right into your backyard, and your pocketbook. For instance, as U. S. hog exports rise, the price you get for your hogs tends to rise.

Question: If the U. S. helps beef up the economy of other lands, won't we lose our markets for farm products in these lands?
Answer: Not likely. As standards of living rise in these nations, their people will demand more goods. Their populations may expand, too. But their agricultural production may not be able to keep up—thus, bigger demands for U. S. products.

Question: Is cutting imports of sugar from Cuba winning us friends in South America?
Answer: In the Dominican Republic, yes. Under the U. S. Sugar Act, most of the Cuban sugar quota went there. But other South American nations resent this—especially since the Dominican Republic is a dictatorship.

Question: Do Latin American countries want more U. S. handouts?
Answer: No. They want top technical aid, plus credits or loans; but not grants.

RAINMAKER'S STORM
San Diego, Calif.—An unexpected storm dropped light snow down to the 2,500-foot level of mountain areas and rain fell elsewhere.
An argument arose between the weather bureau and the rainmak-er.

Edmond Jeffery, of Olympia, Wash., who claims to be a rainmaker, took credit for the storm.
"It's kind of funny," he said.
"The Weather Man didn't see it and here it is. I pulled out all the stops. I'm taking credit for this storm."

Remove Stains While They're Fresh

Speed is the key to effective stain removal. An easy rule to remember about stains is that a fresh one is easier to remove than an old one.

Most household stains—such as fruit, scorch, grass and light mildew—yield to a special solution of heavy duty dry chlorine bleach and detergent. Step one is to quickly rinse the stained area with cold water, then soak 5 to 15 minutes in a solution of 1/4 cup of dry chlorine bleach and one tablespoon detergent per quart of warm water. Always mix in a polyethylene plastic, glass, porcelain or enamel container. Rinse, and repeat if necessary. Colored fabrics, however, should be tested for colorfastness before treating.

For more stubborn stains, products around the kitchen or in the medicine chest come in handy. Butter is useful for softening tar stains. It changes tar into grease which can then be removed with a commercial cleaning fluid. Boiling a rust stained area in milk helps take out the spot. To remove lipstick or rouge stains, rub petroleum jelly into the stain and sponge it with cleaning fluid before laundering the article. If necessary, lipstick stains may also be soaked in a solution of dry chlorine bleach and detergent, then rinsed thoroughly.

Bicarbonate (or baking) soda is good for removing salad dressing stains. Apply a paste of bicarbonate soda and cool water to the stained area. Let it dry, then launder the article in cool water. If the stain remains after the garment dries, sponge with cleaning fluid and launder again. Often stains from alcoholic drinks can be removed by simply soaking the articles in a solution of dry chlorine bleach and detergent.

Impressive Flame Tokay Torte Handsome, elegant "Tokay Torte" makes an impressive appearance at a company buffet. The beautiful, crisp-textured Flame Tokays add rich color and interest to this delicious dessert.
Rinse 2 cups Tokay grapes; halve and seed. Soften 2 envelopes plain gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated orange zind and 1 cup orange juice; heat to boiling. Add softened gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Blend in 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Cool until slightly thickened. Whip 1 cup heavy cream until stiff. Whip gelatin until fluffy. Fold in whipped cream, 1/4 cup orange sections, 1/2 cup toasted flaked coconut and Tokays. Line sides and bottom of 10-inch spring form pan with 3 1/2 dozen small lady fingers, placing curved side of lady fingers against pan. Carefully turn gelatin mixture into pan over lady fingers. Chill overnight, or at least 4 hours. Remove sides of pan and cut torte into wedges to serve. Makes 8 to 12 servings.
