RECEIVES PROMOTION

Ted M. Kattmann, Wheaton College (Illinois) senior, has been promoted to the rank of cadet first lieutenant and will serve as platoon leader and executive of Company F, the college ROTC program. Cadet promotions were made by Lieutenant Colonel Norman W. Hubler, detachment commander, and announced by Captain William E. Cunderlidge, adjutant.

Cadet Kattmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Kattmann, Route 3, Boone, North Carolina. He has been assigned to the Artillery branch and his first duty station after graduation will be announced later.

TRAINING IN ALASKA

Fort Richardson, Alaska—Army Capt. Thomas B. Moore, son of Mrs. Martha B. Moore, 412 Greene St., Boone, N. C., is scheduled to participate in Exercise Willow Freeze, a cold weather warfare field training exercise in Alaska, Feb. 9-18.

The exercise will take place in a 1900-square-mile area of rugged arctic terrain where temperatures range to 60 degrees below zero. Units regularly stationed in Alaska, and skilled in arctic warfare, will defend against the attacking 82d Airborne Division paratroopers from Fort Bragg, N. C. The exercise culminates over six weeks of special cold weather training for the paratroopers who will return to Fort Bragg upon its completion.

A postal officer with the U. S. Army Alaska Support Command's Administration Service Battalion regularly stationed at Fort Richardson, Alaska, Captain Moore entered the Army in June 1951.

Governor Sanford Endorses Heart Fund

Governor Terry Sanford has designated February "Heart Fund Month in North Carolina." The Governor referred to the fact that heart disease annually causes more than half of all deaths in the state and that "the cost in suffering to families and economic loss to the state is incalculable." Because the American and North Carolina Heart Associations support heart research, including projects at North Carolina medical institutions; professional and public education; and community service programs "which have contributed significantly to the accelerated progress of the fight against heart disease," the Governor urged that "all our citizens give this campaign their enthusiastic support and cooperation." The Heart Fund Drive taken place throughout February, and culminates in a door-to-door solicitation on Heart Sunday, February 26th. Wake Forest basketball coach Bones McKinney is state chairman.
