NEW CHURCH.—Workmen carry in pews to the new Pleasant Grove Baptist Church at Silverstone. The structure was begun last July, and was built almost entirely by free labor, donated by citizens of the community. At left, the Rev. James Kesselburg, pastor, stands in pulpit of the sanctuary. The room is well lighted, and complete educational facilities are included in the building. The building committee was composed of Ronda Greene, Emory Mitchell, and Tom Perry. Mitchell and Perry designed and constructed the steeple.

World Day of Prayer

is being voiced simultaneously in Europe, Asia, Africa and Latin America. Services are held in schools, hospitals, department stores, banks, factories and prisons as well as in churches and cathedrals. Governors and mayors issue special proclamations citing the World Day of Prayer. Entire communities participate as churches ring church bells, and factories and fire departments sound their sirens.
Each year United Church Women seeks out Christian leaders in different lands to prepare the service. This anniversary service based on the theme, "Forward Through the Ages," was prepared in the United States by Sue Weddell, former associate general secretary, Division of Foreign Missions, National Council of Churches.
As prayers rise around the world in sixty languages and more than one thousand dialects, there will be a complete band of prayer encircling the earth. Some who pray cannot read; some will be hungry or cold; others will have all the material comforts that wealth provides.
The World Day of Prayer draws in its wake gifts that are material as well as a dedication of the spirit. The offerings are equally divided between projects of the Divisions of Home and Foreign Missions, National Council of Churches. Were it not for these World Day of Prayer offerings, the interdenominational ministries in the U. S., Alaska, and Puerto Rico would be curtailed, as would the extensive educational, medical and religious work around the world.
When the World Day of Prayer celebrates its Diamond Jubilee this year marking seventy-five years of unbroken observance, one of the goals is an offering of $750,000 for the regular on-going projects and for two anniversary specials. The one is a massive literature program for the new Africa, with a Christian training center for African writers, the production of half-a-million books written by Africans for Africans, and the first stage of a co-ordinated program of training African writers in the special techniques of radio script writing. The other "75th" special is a creative

Older Youth Council Sponsors Conference In High Point

The Older Youth Council in cooperation with the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church is sponsoring the "Older Youth Christian Beliefs Conference" to be held at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in High Point, February 24-25, for all older youth—ages 18-21 years.
The theme of the conference is "From Belief to Faith" with Dr. Walter E. Hudgins, Professor of Religion, High Point College, presiding as the keynote speaker, assisted by Reverend G. G. Adams, Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, Gastonia, presiding as Dean.
Other leaders include: Reverend Delbert Bryum, Assistant Pastor of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, High Point; Reverend Robert H. Stamy, Pastor of Main Street Methodist Church, High Point; Mrs. I. L. Sharpe, Conference Secretary of Youth Work, Albemarle; Reverend Reginald J. Cooke, Pastor of St. John's Methodist Church, Gastonia; and Reverend F. Dan Beaty, Pastor of Fairview Church, Mount Mourne.
The Keynote Speaker, Dr. Hudgins, will center his addresses around the topics suggested by the basic creed of Christendom, The Apostles' Creed.
Total group and smaller group discussion will be led by a Youth Chairman and an adult resource person will follow the addresses.
The individual topics to be discussed by Dr. Hudgins are as follows: "From Belief to Faith"; "God, Christ and the Holy Spirit"; "Sin, Forgiveness and Judgment"; "The Kingdom of God, The Holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints and Eternal Life."
These topics are being discussed in an effort to answer older youth's questions concerning life and its meaning in the light of Christian beliefs and to encourage each individual to seek the meaning of these beliefs for his own life.
Registration cost is $8.00 which includes two nights lodging, four meals and insurance. Application can be made to your local Methodist Minister or to Mrs. J. E. Yountz, Box 749, Statesville, North Carolina. Registration deadline is February 17. Registration will be limited.

WARREN OLDEST HOUSE MEMBER
Raleigh—A man who retired as Comptroller General of the United States seven years ago because of physical disability is apparently the oldest member in House or Senate this time.
State Sen. Lindsay Warren of Washington, N. C. became 71 this past December 16. He served as Comptroller General for four years under Franklin D. Roosevelt, for seven years under Harry Truman, and for two years under Dwight D. Eisenhower.
The youngest person in House or Senate seems to be 30-year-old Rep. William L. Osteen of Guilford County. His other distinction is that he is the first Republican representative from his county in 33 years.

NEWS OF SERVICEMEN
TOP MARKSMAN
Schwetzingen, Germany—Army Specialist Four Billy Tester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Tester, Sugar Grove, recently achieved recognition as a top Army marksman by qualifying for the expert marksmanship badge during range firing with the M-1 rifle in Germany.
A truck driver in the company in Schwetzingen, Specialist Tester entered the Army in July 1959, completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C., and arrived overseas in January 1960.
The 20-year-old soldier is a 1958 graduate of Cove Creek High School and was employed by the Franklin Shockey Furniture Co. in Lexington before entering the Army.

ZIONVILLE NEWS
Mrs. Lee Wilson visited Mrs. Joe Shoemaker Monday.

PRESTIGE POLLS RELEASED
Two government polls which said U. S. prestige declined last year in some parts of the world were made public recently on orders from President Kennedy.
Many officials felt then and now that the reports should be kept secret. They contend that the studies are the internal working tools for the agency, needed to help draw an accurate picture of how others see the United States.

Ministers Have Meeting

The regular meeting of the Watauga County Ministers Association was held at the Perkinsville Baptist Church last Monday, with a report by the Rev. Ronda Horton as feature of the program.
Rev. Horton, who in November represented North Carolina and Tennessee at the World Mennonite Conference in California, told of the conference and the merging of two Mennonite fellowships into the Mennonite Brethren Church. One of the highlights of his message was the fact that his group representing sixteen churches with some seventeen hundred members had thirty-one missionaries in the field.
The committees to serve during the year were appointed by the president. These committee chairmen are: School devotionals—the Rev. Todd Ferneyhough; Fifth Sunday services—the Rev. J. K. Parker, Jr.; radio devotionals—the Rev. Rex West; chaplain of the week—the Rev. W. R. Eaton; public relations—Marshall Hargrave; and the program committee—the Rev. Floyd Boston, the Rev. Blake Brinkerhoff, the Rev. James Bayne, and Henry Greer.
The Rev. Preston Hughes, Jr. is president of the association.
The next meeting of the association will be at the Three Forks Baptist Church on March 6.
