Fairy Tale Ballet A Part Of Young Dancers' Program

Boone's young dancers, under the direction of Mrs. Nancy F. Cook, will present a varied program which includes a one-act fairy tale ballet, on Friday, May 19.

Following a brief first scene of diversissements, featuring the younger students and tap, acrobatic, and classic ballet numbers, the colorful ballet of "La Boutique Fantasque" will be presented. This is the story of an enchanted toynshop for which the original

Rossini-Respighi music will be used, with adaptations of the original choreography to suit the ages of the performers. Authentic national dances will include the Italian Tarantella, a Hungarian Czardas, and parts of a French Can-Can.

Leading roles in the ballet will be danced or acted by Edwin Carpenter as the Shopkeeper, Patty Oland and Robert Cook as the Can-Can dancers, Myra Davis, Margaret Blanton, Dianne Davant, and Jane Triplett as the Card Queens, Bethyna Lawrence and Kathy Dotson as the Chess Queens, Bruce Oland as the Thief and Bethyna Lawrence as the Dresden Princess.

Included in the diversissements will be the Valse from "Les Sylphides," the Dance of the Swans from "Swan Lake," and a colorful Oriental Dance.

Curtain time will be at 7:30 in the Elementary School auditorium. Everyone will be welcome and there will be no admission charge.

University Women Meet

The local unit of the American Association of University Women held its April meeting at the College Library, with Mrs. John Van Noppen presiding.

The program consisted of questions about Africa that members would like to have discussed on future programs. Mrs. Foster Park gave a brief report on the current situation in Cuba. She was elected vice-president and Mrs. Edward Gibson was elected treasurer for the coming year. Other officers were elected for two year terms.

Delegates to the State convention on April 27, 28 and 29 will be Mrs. Park, Mrs. Edward Gibson and Mrs. David Hodgins.

She plans to come back to Greensboro for Schiffman's table setting show at Woman's College the latter part of the week.

Friday Club Entertained

Mrs. B. J. Council and Mrs. James Council were hostesses to the Friday Afternoon Club on Saturday, April 22, at their home on Council Street.

Mrs. B. J. Council received in the den where punch was served by Mrs. Frank Payne. From the den the guests were invited to the living and dining rooms where an attractive and delicious luncheon was served. The spring motif was in evidence in floral arrangements of daffodils, hyacinths, and other spring flowers throughout the Council home, also in the colorful luncheon and dessert plates which the hostesses, aided by Mrs. Tracy Council, served.

After a business session, presided over by Mrs. Barnard Dougherty, the members heard Mrs. James Council describe a recent visit to Tryon Palace, the Wilmington Gardens, and Orton Plantation. Mrs. James Winkler told of her attendance at the dedication of the Maude Moore Latham Garden and described some of the other gardens at Tryon Palace.

Nineteen members and one guest, Mrs. Rimmel Porter, were present for this meeting.

Fine Arts Dept. Holds Meeting

The Fine Arts Department of the Worthwhile Woman's Club met on Thursday evening, April 20th in the Adult Assembly room of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. E. M. Luttrell conducted a brief business session, and introduced the guests.

Miss Elizabeth Greer, honor guest and winner of the District Music Contest held recently in Lenoir, sang a solo to open the program. She gave a beautiful rendition of "Consider the Lilies", and was accompanied by Mrs. Richard Greer at the piano. They went to Raleigh on April 22nd, where Miss Greer sang in the State Contest, sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Miss Faye Miller, winner of the local art contest, was also an honor guest of the club. She and Miss Greer were presented cash awards by the club, in recognition of their achievements.
