Legal Notices

NOTICE OF RE-SALE OF SURPLUS SCHOOL PROPERTY, NORTH CAROLINA, WATAUGA COUNTY

Notice is hereby given that the Watauga County Board of Education has determined that the lot and building known as the Watauga Consolidated School property is no longer necessary for school purposes, and that same is being offered for sale as surplus property under the provisions of General Statutes 115-136.

And whereas, the said property was offered for sale on the 10th day of April, 1961; and whereas, the last and highest bid made on said property having been raised within the ten days allotted by law and it being ordered that the property be offered for re-sale.

Therefore, the following described real estate will be offered for sale to the highest bidder for cash on the 8th day of May, 1961, at 12 o'clock noon at the courthouse door in Boone, North Carolina, the starting bid being One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), said tract lying and being in Boone Township, Watauga County, North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING on a stake in the East margin of Church Street and runs South 50 degrees East 102 feet to a stake; thence North 40 degrees East 107 feet to a stake; thence North 45 degrees West 103 feet to a stake in the East margin of Church Street; thence with the East margin of Church Street South 40 degrees West 115 feet to the BEGINNING.

This the 21st day of April, 1961. WATAUGA COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION Guy Angell, Secretary 4-27-2c

WEBSTER IMAGE DISPLAYED

A portrait of Daniel Webster, New England congressman, senator and one-time Secretary of State, will be displayed in President Kennedy's office.

The portrait of Webster by George P. A. Healy is among 21 American oil paintings and watercolors collected from three famous museums for the White House.

BEGINNING on a Black gum tree, thence a South course with E. F. Bingham's line 18 poles to a small chestnut, Charlie Greer's corner; thence a West course with said Greer's and Noah Sanders line 22 1/3 poles to a small horn beam in the branch on same course 7 2/3 poles to small beech and water oak stump; thence an East course with said Perry's line 15 poles to a stake in a low gap. Perry's corner; thence to a stake in said Perry's line; thence an East course with said Perry's line 7 3/4 poles to the BEGINNING, containing 4 1/2 acres, more or less.

TRACT TWO: BEGINNING on a stake, Perry's corner near a low gap on the West side of said gap; then runs South 25 deg. East 6 poles to a stake at the branch; thence South 75 deg. East 6 poles to a stake in Perry's line; thence a Northwest course 10 poles to the BEGINNING, containing about 1-1/2 of an acre, more or less.

This 26 day of April, 1961. Stacy C. Eggers, Jr. Commissioner 4-27-4c

Housemother: "Young man,

we turn the lights off around here at 10 o'clock."

Boy: "That's all right, Ma'am, we won't be reading."

Want little tires or full-sized tires on your compact?

WHICH IS THE RAMBLER AMERICAN?

Small compacts like Falcon, Corvair, use 13-inch tires that turn a million times more every 10,000 miles—run hotter, wear faster.

Rambler American is the economy compact with big 15-inch tires that look better, run cooler, last longer, give more load-carrying capacity.

FREE 28-Page Illustrated X-RAY BOOK At Your Rambler Dealer Compares '61 Cars Side By Side

Get a Rambler American!

X-Ray shows it's BETTER BUILT
Compare Falcon, Comet, Corvair, Valiant, Lark, Lancer with Rambler American's thorough excellence, such as 9,000-weld Single-Unit construction. Deep-Dip rustproofing up to the roof.

X-Ray shows it's a BETTER BUY
The better-built Rambler American officially carries lowest price of any U.S. sedan. It is priced from $671 to $485—LESS than ALL other American-made compacts.

*Price comparisons are based on manufacturers' suggested factory delivered prices for comparable models.
