Such attacks would be called a Federal criminal offense punishable by a $10,000 fine and ten-year prison sentence.

LOST ANGLER SURVIVES Schraga Lake, N. Y.—Lost five days in the Adirondack Mountains, frail but wiry 19-year-old Jay Kendall kept calm and survived.

Luck was with Kendall—the owners arrived a few hours later to open the camp for the summer. An examining physician believed he escaped death because he drank water. His only other food was four small pieces of candy and a toad eaten raw.

Johnny Minton had the 18th and 14th place lambs in the individual lamb class. Watauga placed 2nd in the county group of five lambs.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to extend an expression of thanks to those who cared for Hattie Farthing during her sickness and who sent flowers at the time of her death—Mrs. Vann Farthing and cousins.

Powell, Wyo.—Winning college contests seem to be in the Bonner family—but there is some stiff competition.

Anne Bonner, a freshman, was named "Miss University of Wyoming" Bob, her brother, was a winner too in the same college. He won the university's "ugly man" contest.
