Garden Council Meets Wednesday

The Boone Garden Council met on Wednesday evening, July 5, at the home of Mrs. James Winkler on Blowing Rock Road with nine members present. Among summer plans and projects for garden club members were attendance at the meeting of the Board of Directors of North Carolina Garden Clubs, Inc., to be held at Mayview Manor on July 26; the beautification of property contest along highways 421 and 321 adjacent to and through Boone; and participation in the flower show sponsored by the Blue Ridge Garden Club to be held on July 19 at the Boone Methodist Church. Judges for the beautification contest were named by the council president, Mrs. John Hollar, and are as follows: Mrs. B. W. Stallings, Miss Cynthia Stiles, Mrs. Len Hagaman, and Mrs. W. C. Richardson.

Honor certificates for outstanding work in 1960 were given to each of the presidents of the four Boone Garden Clubs. These are state awards and were presented at the State Convention in Durham in April. Of particular interest to Boone gardeners was the display of three blue ribbons won by Mrs. B. W. Stallings for prize lilies exhibited at the North American Lily Society Show in Chapel Hill on June 30.
