

ASTC Students Come From 84 Counties

APPALACHIAN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
1962 FALL QUARTER
N. C. UNDERGRADUATE - ON CAMPUS

By LARRY PENLEY
Eighty-four of the 100 counties of North Carolina were represented in the resident undergraduate students at Appalachian State Teachers College during the fall quarter, according to information received recently from H. R. Eggers, ASTC registrar.

From Murphy to Chowan students made their way to the Boone campus to enroll as candidates for degrees leading to teacher certification.

Of the total number of in-state undergraduate students, 80 per cent is from the Piedmont, 15 per cent from the mountains, and 5 per cent from the coastal plains.

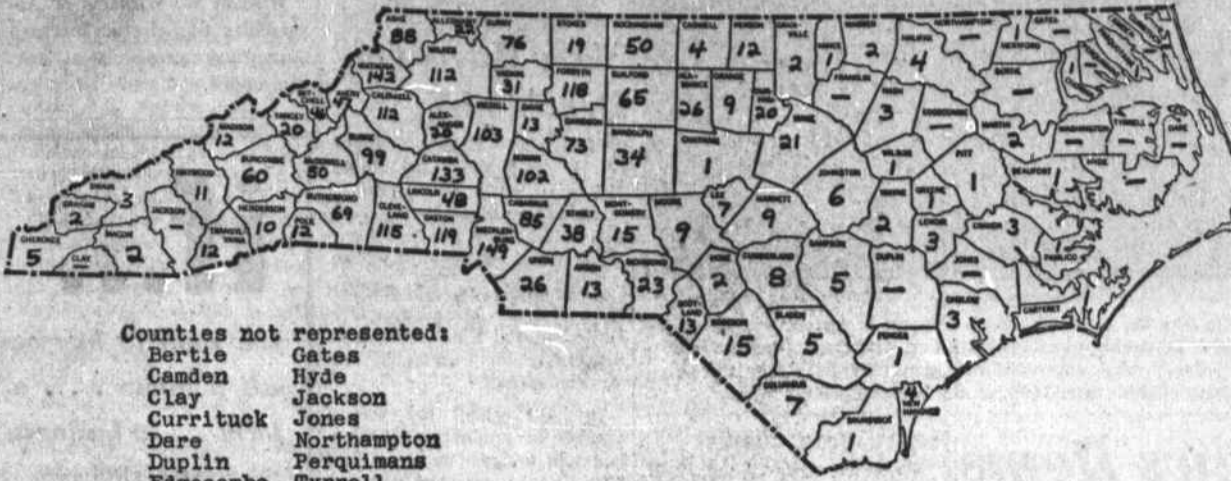

Other states contributed 148 students out of an enrollment of 2,772 undergraduates, which represents a fraction over five per cent of the enrollment.

Mecklenburg County contributed 149 students to lead all the other counties in the state with students at Appalachian.

Other counties in the top ten contributed students as follows: Watauga, 142; Catawba, 133; Gaston, 119; Forsyth, 118; Cleveland, 115; Caldwell, 112; Wilkes, 112; Iredell, 103; and Rowan, 102.

The top ten counties contributed 1,205 of the students or about 43 per cent.

Students coming from the second ten counties are Burke, 99; Ashe, 88; Cabarrus, 85; Sur-

The 16 counties that contributed no students to Appalachian were Bertie, Camden, Clay, Currituck, Dare, Duplin, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gates, Hyde, Jackson, Jones, Northampton, Perquimans, Tyrrell, and Washington. Fourteen of these counties are east of Raleigh and two are in the mountain section.

Charlotte Youth Named 1963 Easter Seal Child

Chapel Hill.—Dr. John W. Baluss, Jr. of Fayetteville, president of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults, has announced the selection of eight year old David Unzueta of Charlotte as North Carolina's 1963 Easter Seal Child.

DAVID UNZUETA

David, son of Mrs. Edna Unzueta, is a double amputee. He wears prosthetic legs with which he manages to be quite active. David has become an excellent swimmer during his two years of participation in the Red Cross swimming program. He is in the third grade at Our Lady of the Assumption School in Charlotte. David has three sisters and a brother.

As the State Easter Seal Child, David is scheduled to meet the Governor and "kick off" the 1963 Easter Seal appeal. He will also make television appearances and be the guest of honor at numerous area meetings. Until Easter Day, David will be a little boy very much on the go as he represents the hundreds of handicapped children in North Carolina.

200 ICBMs

The 200th nuclear-tipped intercontinental ballistic missile has been set up on the firing line. United States authorities say this provides the nation with twice the Soviet Union's ICBM force.

This completes the first phase of the United States' missile buildup. From now on, the new missile squadrons will comprise the more powerful Titan II and the advanced Minuteman solid fuel weapons.

Boy Scout Delivers Baby

Hamburg, N. Y.—When it became evident that an ambulance would not arrive in time to take his mother to a hospital, 14-year-old Kurt Knapp, a Boy Scout, called a doctor and he directed the youth in delivering his baby brother.

Later, at a hospital, physicians said both Mrs. Knapp and her new son were doing fine.

ORAL HOMEMAKER EXAM SCHEDULED

Raleigh—The North Carolina Merit System Council has announced that an oral examination for positions of Homemaker with the local departments of Public Welfare will be held during the weeks of February 18 and February 25.

Official application forms and information about salary ranges, duties, and minimum qualifications may be obtained from the Merit System Office, State Personnel Department, or any local Employment Security Commission Office or local Department of Public Welfare. These applications must be postmarked no later than February 8, 1963.

If there are a sufficient number of applications, examinations will be held in the following centers throughout the state: Asheville, Charlotte, Elizabeth City or New Bern, Raleigh and Greensboro. Approved applicants will be notified of the exact time and place to appear for the examination.

Fourteen High Schoolers Pass Choral Clinic Auditions

Fourteen Appalachian High School Choir members successfully passed recent auditions enabling them to participate in the annual Mars Hill College Choral Clinic, to be held Friday and Saturday, February 8 and 9, on the college campus at Mars Hill.

The auditions were conducted by faculty members of the Mars Hill College Department of Music at North Wilkesboro on Saturday, January 19.

The local students who will attend the clinic are Patsy Be-shars, Kathryn Mast, Maria Erneston, Eddie Winkler, Wayne Clawson, Johnny Parker, William High, Bob Wilson, David Critcher, Bartlett Dougherty, Bob Friend, Curtis Richardson, Joe Todd and Jim Cottrell.

Approximately 250 choir members representing 29 high schools will participate in the two day event. They will be guests of the college at a banquet on Friday evening. The rehearsals will culminate in a concert Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Moore Auditorium. The clinic director will be Paul Peterson, professor of voice and director of choral work at Salem College, Winston-Salem. Mr. Peterson, widely known in musical circles throughout the South, is the author of a successful book on solo and choral singing.

Students attending the clinic will be housed in dormitories on the college campus. The local group will be accompanied by their director, J. E. Wilson, Jr.

The Saturday evening concert is open to the public. Mr. Wilson said, with no admission charge.

B. W. Stallings, owner of Diamond S Ranch, attended the Pleasant Point Plantation Sale in Orangeburg, S. C., on February 2, where he purchased PPP Blanche Gold 1st, a big straight, good headed, fleshy heifer, sired by Gatesford Goldmine 70. She is out of a daughter of CMR Mischief Dom. 51.

PPP Blanche Gold 1 is a double bred grand daughter of CMR Rollo Dom. 12. CMR Mischief 51 is a son of the 12th and CMR Blanche Dom. 10, being a daughter of the 12th. CMR Blanche Dom. 10 is the grandmother of Gatesford Goldmine 70 and also CMR Rollo Dom. 10 in turn is the sire of CMR Rollo Dom. 5th, the $320,000 bull.

This heifer is a top individual with a great background. She is bred to Intense Victor, the bull that was responsible for the $719.00 sale average.

U. S. KEEPS AIR STRENGTH

The United States is maintaining the air defense system in the southeastern states at virtually the peak strength mustered in the first days of the Cuban crisis.

While the guard against air or missile strike is being kept up, Army ground forces which were moved to forward positions in Florida, Georgia and other neighboring areas to be ready for a defensive operation have been sent back to home bases.

KENTUCKY SCHOOLS

More than 3,500 new classrooms have been built in Kentucky in the past three years.
