

FRED KIRBY AND CALICO BEFORE TV CAMERA

Fred Kirby To Be Honored At Special Horn In West Night

Fred Kirby, the popular television cowboy actor will be honored in a special night named for him during the Horn in the West outdoor drama performance here Saturday August 3.

Kirby will receive the "Horn" salute in person and give a brief show of his own prior to the 8:15 p. m. performance of the drama, now in its 12th season.

The tribute to the Tar Heel cowboy will be called the "Fred Kirby Night."

There will be no extra charge to see Fred at the Daniel Boone Theatre.

Kirby has been playing the guitar and singing since he was a child, and professionally since he was sixteen.

His mother taught him to play the guitar, and taught him many of the old songs that he still loves to sing.

After traveling most of the United States, and making one motion picture, Fred has settled down to his greatest love, and that is "the world's greatest people—children", he says. "There's no greater satisfaction on earth than having the love and admiration of a child," the handsome personality of television adds.

Kirby stars on WBTB's "3-Ring Circus" every day Monday through Friday from 5 to 6 p. m. on Channel 3, Charlotte.

On weekends Kirby plays the hero role of Marshal at Tweetsie Railroad between Boone and Blowing Rock.

DOLL FROM TURKEY
Ankara, Turkey — Mariac Zulaica of Topeka, Kan. wrote Premier Ismet Nnonu of Turkey asking him to send her a Turkish doll and she would sell her bicycle to pay for it.

The Premier sent her a letter and directed an aid to send her a doll right away so Mariac would not start selling her bicycle. The 79-year-old premier was impressed with the little girl's letter and desire to add a Turkish doll to her collection.

Letters To Editor Says Democrat Best Thing In State For Years

Dear Mr. Rivers:
It is with great pleasure that I pass along to you the Southern Appalachian Historical Association, Chamber of Commerce, Merchants Association, and every other organization that had anything to do with our recent celebration, our deep sincere appreciation to the South's best weekly newspaper The Watauga Democrat, for the many things you did to help promote these events.

According to authorities, The Daniel Boone Train was the most authentic one put on since the pioneer days, and created more attention than anything we have ever done.

Thanks so very much.
Sincerely,
Herman W. Wilcox

Tercentenary Celebration

Dear Mr. Rivers:
I would be pleased if you would reprint this letter since it carries a message to others who did so much to make this project a wonderful success.
Herman W. Wilcox

(Enclosure)

Dear Herman:
I stopped by several times to congratulate you in what we consider one of the outstanding promotions and attractions that North Carolina has had in years.

It was a real pleasure for us to have the opportunity to add another first to your first by being the first to broadcast hourly reports direct from the scene, and en route of the

News Of Our Servicemen Farthing Hagaman At Fort Hood

Elmendorf AFB, Alaska.—Airman Second Class William B. Farthing of Boone has arrived here for assignment with a unit of the Air Force Communications Service.

Airman Farthing, a radio equipment repairman, previously was stationed at Donaldson AFB, S. C.

The airman, a graduate of Appalachian High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Farthing Sr. of Route 3, Boone. He attended Appalachian State Teachers College. His wife, Brenda, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Covert of 2900 Cliffside Road, Kingsport, Tenn.

Fort Hood, Tex.—Army Sgt. Jerry S. Hagaman, 20, son of Mrs. Nellie S. Hagaman, Zionville, is participating with other members of the 2d Armored Division's 78th Artillery in a support mission for three U. S. Army Reserve and National Guard divisions during their summer training at Fort Hood, Tex.

Sergeant Hagman is assigned to the 1st Howitzer Battalion's Battery C of the artillery at Fort Hood. He entered the Army in May of this year.

When a person knows the answers to all problems, there is reason to believe he doesn't understand the problems.

Blowing Rock To Hear School Bonds Discussed

Mrs. Ann Brown, President of the American Legion Auxiliary of Blowing Rock, urges all members to attend the mass meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the High School Auditorium in Blowing Rock.

At this time Mr. Guy Angell, superintendent of Watauga county schools will discuss the school needs in relation to the bond issue to be voted on in September.

The Auxiliary meets the last Thursday night of each month. Due to the importance of the mass meeting the July meeting will not be held.

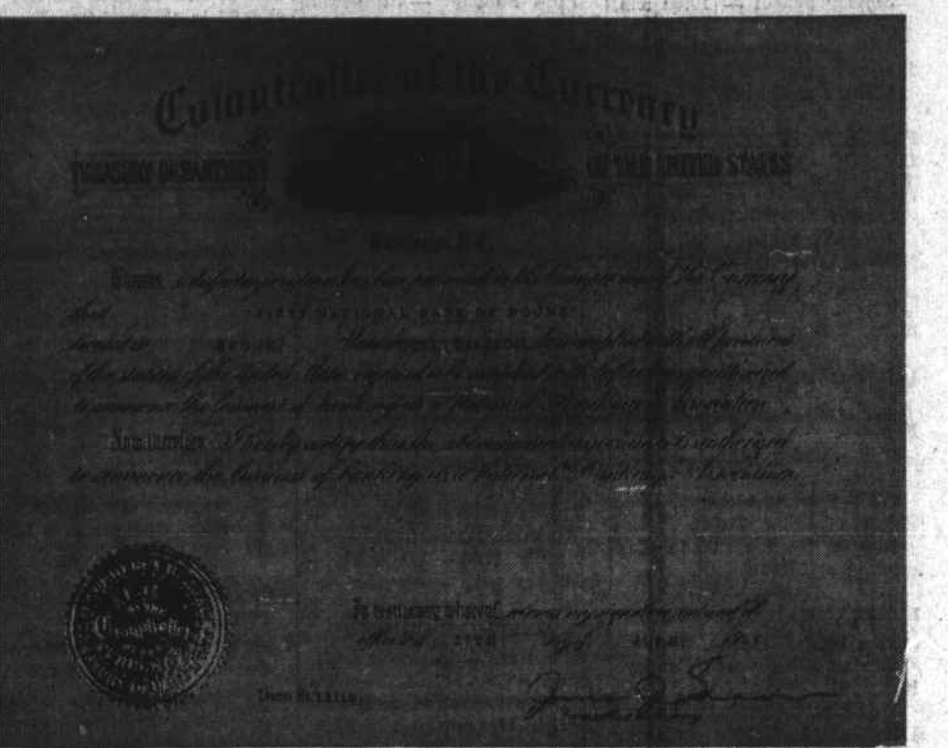

Wagon Train.
We feel that all who were connected with you and your Wagon Train even are to be congratulated and heartily told "good job, well done."

Looking forward to seeing you, we are

BILLBOARD BAN
The first bonus payment to a state for prohibiting billboard advertising along interstate highways has been presented to Kentucky, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges made the presentation of the $65,488 check to Gov. Bert T. Combs. Kentucky is the first state to comply with the law that allows a bonus of one-half of 1 per cent of the Federal grant on interstate highways to any state that prohibits billboards along interstate highways.
