

Red Cross Aids Victims Of Tornado

In South Florida the Red Cross has set up for weeks of family recovery operations for victims of Monday tornadoes, with registration centers throughout the storm areas, and 23 disaster specialists are assigned to help local chapters in this phase of the relief operation, C. Ralph Barlow of Atlanta, disaster director for the ARC Southeastern Area, reports. George Peterson of Atlanta is state relief director with headquarters in Tampa.

Meanwhile, shelters continue in operation at Tampa and Lakeland, as do eleven emergency vehicles equipped and staffed for feeding and first aid services to storm victims and clean-up workers, Barlow said. Feeding, medical, clothing, welfare inquiry, housing and other immediately needed services are given.

Robert F. Shea of Washington, D. C., vice president of the Red Cross, during a tour of the storm areas Tuesday urged all stricken families to make their needs known at one of the Red Cross centers. "Our workers will supplement family resources in meeting these needs and will remain on the job for several weeks or until help needed is given."

Family recovery assistance will include funds and guidance in reconstruction of homes and small businesses, furnishing, long-term medical care, temporary housing and other maintenance, occupational and other storm-caused needs.

Red Cross surveys show 283 homes and 114 house trailers destroyed, 450 homes and 140 trailers with major damage, and more than 600 homes with minor damage, 23 small businesses destroyed or with major damage.

By early Tuesday, more than 50 families already had requested recovery assistance.

Governor Haydon Burns issued a proclamation Wednesday morning naming the Red Cross as the official agency to help stricken families in recovery.

Egg Cooking Contest Time Is On The Way

It's Egg Cooking Contest time again in the state of North Carolina. Time for "Eggs" will be spotlighted as Junior contestants search their minds and skills for creative recipes. The contestants this year will be competing for scholarships to the school of their choice. First place winner will receive a $500 scholarship to the school of his or her choice plus an expense paid trip to Chicago in August to compete in the National contest for a $500 Shopping Spree. Second and third place winners will receive a $250 and $100 scholarship in that order. The scholarships will be put into a trust fund and allowed to accumulate interest until the winner is ready to use it.

There has been a change in both state and national contests. This year the Egg Cooking Contests are open to just Junior Contestants, ranging in age from 10 through 18 and not 19 by December 31, 1966.

The 1966 State Egg Cooking Contest Cook-offs will be held Wednesday, July 13, 1966 at the Jack Tar Hotel and Motor Lodge in Durham. There will be 8 contestants competing for the grand prizes. Entry blanks may be obtained from Home Economics Teachers, Home Economics Extension Agents, Agricultural Teachers, or by writing to Eggs, P. O. Box 10312, Raleigh, North Carolina. The North Carolina Egg Cooking Contest is sponsored by the North Carolina Egg Marketing Association.

NC 16 Will Be Closed For Eighteen Months

Raleigh—The State Highway Commission announced that NC-16 from Wilkesboro to a point near Taylorsville will be closed to thru traffic beginning April 13, 1966, to November, 1967, for re-construction. Traffic will be detoured via NC-18 to Lenoir; US-321 to Hickory and Conover; 1-40 to NC-90; and NC-90 to Taylorsville. Local traffic will be maintained.

The contractor has advised that every effort will be made to expedite the work and possibly lessen the length of time the road will be closed to thru traffic.
