MRS. JUANITA KELLEY

Mrs. Juanita Kelley will give her senior piano recital Monday, April 18 at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of I. G. Greer Hall. Juanita is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Commie Turner of Hamptonville, N. C. and the wife of Phil Kelley of Boone.

Having majored in music at Appalachian State Teachers College since 1962, Mrs. Kelley is a student of Walton Cole. She completed her fall quarter student teaching at Wilkes Central High School in North Wilkesboro. She is active in the choir and Training Union at the First Baptist Church.

She will perform numbers by Scarlatti, Brahms, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, and Leighton. Juanita will be assisted by Margaret Cantrell and Doug Harris, vocal students of W. Hoyt Saffrit.

John Gilliam, with April 27 as the deadline.

Members brought Easter gifts for Western Carolina Center and gifts for the Hospital Ship Hope.

Mrs. Isley represented the club at the recent dinner meeting of the Worthwhile Club.

Plans were made to send delegates to the state convention in Pinehurst May 15-18. Mrs. Auten was invited to serve as a teller on Junior Day by Mrs. Gibson.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostesses served a dessert plate in the Easter motif.

Mrs. Gibson Speaks To Woman's Club Thursday

A state officer of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc., Mrs. Donald H. Gibson of Gastonia, spoke to the members of the Boone Junior Woman's Club Thursday evening.

Mrs. Gibson is currently serving as State Junior Historian, and is a past District 3 Junior Director and Junior chairman of Public Affairs for the state federation.

Mrs. Gibson discussed federation organization and programs, beginning with the General Federation, an international organization of eleven million women.

Progressing to the state and district programs, she pointed out that District 3 is the largest of the 16 North Carolina districts with 1,414 members. Of this number, 392 women are members of 11 Junior clubs. The two Boone clubs are a part of this district.

Many helpful suggestions and ideas were given concerning the local club. The informal discussion allowed much particition from members.

While in Boone, Mrs. Gibson was the guest of Mrs. Frank Auten, first vice-president, who made arrangements for the program.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Robert Snead on Grand Boulevard, with Mrs. Dempsey Wilcox, Jr., as co-hostess.

Presiding was the president, Mrs. Roy W. Isley. A devotional was given by Mrs. Otis Strother.

Three officers were elected to serve for the coming year, beginning in May: Mrs. James E. Rhoades, first vice-president; Mrs. Bob Baker, bulletin editor; and Mrs. William L. High, sponsor, from the Worthwhile Club.

Mrs. Harvey Ayers announced the annual spring Rummage Sale for Saturday, April 23rd, with the location to be determined and announced later.

The annual installation banquet will be Thursday, May 5, at the Chalet, with husbands as guests. Reservations are being taken by the chairman, Mrs.

AN 18-UNIT EXTENSION is being built onto the Queen Street Apartments, seen here from West King Street. Stanley Harris Sr. says he has sold the apartment building to a Fayetteville, N. $50,000 Is Processed For Co. School Supplies

Following approval of the Elementary and Secondary Education program, purchase orders in excess of $50,000 have been processed for instructional equipment and supplies for Watauga County schools qualified under the program. Principals and teachers are evaluating their programs, and additional purchase orders will be issued in the near future for additional instructional aids designed to upgrade the total instructional program. Funds from this program have also enabled the county to employ 16 new certified teachers, 33 teacher aids and two registered nurses.

Mothers Protest Tax
Birmingham, England—Three hundred mothers are protesting a tax on their daughters' curves. Parents, whose daughters attend the Harrison Barrow Grammar School, must pay a 10 per cent sales tax on uniform dresses when the bust exceeds 32 inches.
