

Watauga G.O.P. Leaders Scent Win

Pennywise

At each place setting was a card bearing a Lincoln penny and the Lincoln quote: "Let us in building our new party plant ourselves on the rock of the Declaration of Independence, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against us."

Mrs. Lura Greene, who made the cards, announced at the outset of the meeting there were three lucky pennies in the crowd. Lum Coffey of Blowing Rock and S. C. Eggers of Boone were holders of cards bearing the 1955 and 1949 pennies and received gifts.

The County chairman was holder of the 1954 penny and received a beige recliner as a prize. Greene countered the surprise, joking "you never win by sitting down—you got to work."

"We had a slogan in our County," Mrs. Greene said, "to buy Broyhill furniture, and vote for Bingham." Well... we bought it."

Mrs. Orville Foster spoke of the Party's love and appreciation for Mrs. Greene's work and placed on her head a crown of gold foil, naming her "Watauga County Republican Queen." Mrs. Greene received a standing ovation. The tables turned. When she removed the crown, she found four $50-bills affixed to it.

She publicly renewed her dedication to the Party, promising to begin organizing next year for the 1968 election.

S. C. Eggers was recognized as the man who served Watauga longer as Representative than any other man and brief talks were made by Sheriff Dallas Cheek, who expressed gratitude that he was elected in 1962 by the biggest majority in the County's political history; by Commissioner Bynum Greene, whose 8-year record was said to be second only to that of Uncle Alex Greene; by Commissioner Red Lyons, who was elected at the record age of 25; and by present Tax Supervisor Fred Michael and former Supervisor Ralph Greene.

Orville Foster, re-elected Clerk of Court, said he is "grateful and humble to be the only County man elected, but my joy is not what it might have been if my running mates had been elected."

Mrs. Linney Attends NATS Conference

Mrs. Virginia Wary Linney attended a regional conference of the National Association of Teachers of Singing the past weekend in Winston-Salem.

There, she conducted the annual auditions of The Singer of the Year. The conference was held on the campus of Salem College and the School of the Arts.

Speaker Sees Food Shortage

Smith called this "an example of the free world's imagination and ingenuity. Half the Russian population are farmers, he said, but produce food at an inadequate rate and "are knocking at the door of the free world for food."

Speaking of the Farm-City Week awards, Smith said—"These people received these awards in competition with each other. They are competent people, who provide the fuel for a high-level economy."

"We must be conscious of the fact that our ability to produce is the finest weapon for Democracy we have. Watauga County's on the move! I can see it; I know you can."

Prizes

Bob Barnes recognized, in turn, Mayor Wade Brown, Commissioner-elect Glenn Hodges, Fred McNeal of the Chamber of Commerce, members of Civitan, Lions, Rotary, and Optimist clubs, representatives of industry, 4-H leaders and members, Jaycees, home demonstration clubs, woman's clubs and garden clubs.

Jerry Adams, president of the Watauga County Council of Community Development Clubs, saluted the winners of the coveted community awards.

Chamber Of Commerce News Notes

If the skiing weather is favorable this season, according to the increase in inquiries from many places in North Carolina and from other states, this should be a banner year for the winter sport.

Along with the Watauga

Democrat, the Chamber of Commerce wishes to congratulate the Board of Directors of Appalachian State Teachers College for naming the new Student Center in honor of Dr. W. H. Plemmons. Through the untiring work of Dr. Plemmons, Appalachian is rapidly developing into one of the finest educational institutions in the United States.

Mrs. Carla Miller, junior in business administration at Appalachian, has completed her office practice at the Chamber of Commerce office. Carla is a very fine girl and did her job well. After graduation she plans to either pursue a business career or teach business in high school. Congratulations, Carla!
