Wataugans At Work

Displaying a Christmas angel she made from the pages of a Reader's Digest is Mrs. R. H. Harmon of Highland Park in Boone. Mrs. Harmon is past president of the Worthwhile Woman's Club of Boone, and is one of many members hand-making Christmas decorations to be sold at the Bazaar this week. For several years, she worked with the County Welfare Department. She and Dr. Harmon are members of the First Methodist Church of Boone. Their sons are Bobby, a graduate student at ASTC, and Charles, who is in the Army. (Staff photo)

Dr. Greenfield Will Conduct 'Messiah' Sun.

Winston-Salem—Dr. Alfred Greenfield, internationally famous conductor, will direct the thirty-fifth annual performance of Handel's "Messiah" at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, December 4, in Reynolds Memorial Auditorium. The presentation is under the auspices of the Mozart Club.

A chorus of approximately 300, composed of members of all church choirs and organized choral groups of Winston-Salem and surrounding cities, as well as individual singers not affiliated with any organized group, are participating in this event. Four nationally renowned oratorio soloists and an orchestra composed of the outstanding instrumentalists of North Carolina will perform under the direction of Dr. Alfred Greenfield.

Alfred Greenfield, internationally famous conductor, who enjoys the distinction of being the first American to present "Messiah" in its original form, Active Conductor, for twelve seasons, and presently Honorary Conductor of the famous Oratorio Society of New York, which, accompanied by the New York Philharmonic Symphony, annually presents "Messiah" at Carnegie Hall, guest conductor of the internationally renowned Mormon Tabernacle Salt Lake City "Messiah" performances, distinguished educator selected by our National Government to establish choral music in the Universities of South America, Chairman, Department of Music, University College, New York University, where he is serving his forty-first season as director of the Glee Club, which has appeared with the New York Philharmonic, NBC Symphony of the Air and Boston Symphony, former faculty member of the School of Sacred Music, Union Theological Seminary, and well known composer of sacred music, will direct the performance and six rehearsals. Four nationally famous soloists, all of whom are distinguished in the fields of concert and opera, as well as oratorio, have been engaged.

Baptist World Alliance Official To Speak Here

Dr. Josef Nordenhaug, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance will be the guest speaker at the First Baptist Church of Boone Sunday morning, Dec. 4. Dr. Nordenhaug will speak at the 8:45 and 10:55 services of worship.

A native of Norway, Dr. Nordenhaug attend the public schools of Oslo and is a graduate of the University of Oslo. He attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. where he earned the Master of Theology and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. He returned to Norway as assistant to the pastor of First Baptist Church of Oslo, but returned to the U.S.A. where he served as pastor of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church in Prestonsburg, Ky. He was pastor of several churches and served in denominational posts. In 1948, he became the Editor of "The Commission," publication of the Foreign Mission Board. Two years later he was elected president of the Baptist Theological Seminary in Ruschlikon, Switzerland. He served as chairman of the Baptist Relief Committee for Hungary during the uprising in 1956. He was elected to his present position in 1960.

Dr. Nordenhaug has traveled extensively as general secretary in order to promote
