MRS. MICHAEL JOHN BOVINO

Miss Elizabeth Irene Hartley of Blowing Rock became the bride of Michael John Bovino of Aurora, Ohio, at noon, Saturday, Nov. 26, at the Catholic Church of the Epiphany at Blowing Rock.

Mrs. Mae Miller, who is recuperating at Watauga Hospital after undergoing surgery, had the following members of her family visit her over the holidays: Mrs. Ennis Littlewood of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Littlewood and Charles of Bel Air, Md.; Mrs. Bob Brooks and Robbie of Hamlet; Mr. Blaine Miller and Gennie of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Winkler and children, Doris, Dean, Gwyn and Douglas and Miss Dinese Keller returned Sunday after visiting several days with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kollisar of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Vannoy of Chardon, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vannoy and Messrs. Rex and Flake Vannoy of Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Thanksgiving visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vines were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vines and Norma Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Vines and family all of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. James Vines and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Vines and son, Keith of Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson and family of Lenoir. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Tester of Lenoir visited Sunday with the Vineses.

Visitors in the home of Miss Lucy Greene and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Norris for Thanksgiving dinner were Rev. and Mrs. Archie Clawson, Dianne, Donna and Denise, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller, Norma Sue and Bob, Miss Della Greene all of Boone; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greene and Carolyn and Mrs. Bessie Eller of Deep Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Roby Hawkins and Johnny of Lenoir; Mr. R. J. Mains of Sherwood.

Misses Candace, Ruthelen and Mellissa Hartley, sisters of the bride, were her attendants. Their gowns were of royal blue chiffon velvet, styled with scoop neckline and ruffled, elbow length sleeves.

Mr. Michael Barnes of Aurora, Ohio, served as best man.

Mr. Kenneth Hartley and Mr. Vaughn Hartley Jr., brothers of the bride, were ushers.

A luncheon reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thalheimer of Blowing Rock. The house was decorated with laurel and other native greenery.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Vincent Bovino, Miss Dorothy Allendorfer, Miss Karen Telepaki, Miss Kathy Rees, Miss Ann Rubin and Mrs. Danny Nall.

The couple will make their home in Aurora, Ohio.

Merrin-Tribble Engaged Vows Are Said

The First Presbyterian Church of Zephyrhills, Fla., was the scene of the marriage of Miss Mary Francis Merrin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James F. Merrin, and John Herschel Tribble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Tribble of Boone.

The ceremony took place Nov. 26. The sanctuary was decorated with floor standards of white fall flowers. Mrs. Ray Sisco, organist, provided a program of nuptial music, and Mrs. John Conally was vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father who also completed the service after the betrothal ceremony conducted by the Rev. Eugene Kirkman of Winston-Salem. The bride's dress was a floor-length model of imported lace over peau de soie. Her veil fell from a small pill box of matching lace and she carried a bouquet of white camellias and fern.

The maid of honor was Miss Virginia Simmons of Jacksonville, Fla., niece of the bride. The bride's matron was Mrs. Edward David Koster of Norfolk, Va., sister of the groom. The attendants' dresses were of deep avocado satin with overlays of lace. Their flowers were chrysanthemums of carnations in shades of gold and bronze.

Mr. Tribble had as his best man his father.

Groomsmen were Lt. Edward Kester, USN of Norfolk, and Dr. Kay Marvin Eoff of Gainesville, Fla.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Tribble greeted friends. Later, a wedding breakfast was given by the parents of the bride for the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

MISS AUDREY WALLACE

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Henry H. Church, formerly of Todd, announce the engagement of their foster daughter, Audrey Ruth Wallace to Airman Dennis Neil Hartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hartley of Boone.

Miss Wallace is a sophomore at Appalachian State Teachers College. Airman Hartley is a graduate of Watauga High School and is presently stationed at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill.

Wedding plans are incomplete.

Tokyo-to-New York air service to start.
