Local Students Are Members ASTC Band

Miss Pam Hamby and Wade Coffey, Jr., both of Boone, are members of the College Choir at Appalachian State Teachers College for the current school year.

The choir is open to all students who have musical talent and who are interested in singing. The choir, under the direction of Dr. Paul Logan, appears in concerts locally and in adjoining states.

Miss Hamby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamby of 300 Cherry Drive, is a 1964 graduate of Appalachian High School and is a college junior.

Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Coffey of 805 East King Street, is a 1965 graduate of Appalachian High School and is a sophomore at the college.

A $9,159,519 increase in sales was registered by Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc., during the 20-week period ended Nov. 12 compared with the corresponding period last year.

The volume was $374,504,526 compared with $365,345,007, an increase of 2.51 per cent.

The company, which operates 701 supermarkets throughout the South, reported a sales decrease for the four-week period ended Nov. 12. The volume was $74,022,494 compared with $74,185,063, a decrease of $162,569 or .22 per cent.

On Travel To U. S.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler told a conference of 500 European travel agents and travel writers who recently visited the U.S. that the way to hold down the American travel dollar drain was to encourage foreigners to come to America.

A SCORE FOR THE APPS—Leaping Danny Beauchamp connects on a layup shot against Pfeiffer as the Mountaineers opened their 1966-67 home schedule with a 72-57 victory last Thursday night. Beauchamp totaled 21 points, although seeing only 22 minutes of action due to foul troubles. Number 42 in the photo is Gary Chenevey.

Comment On Sports

BY PETE FRITCHIE

Washington, D. C. — The Army-Navy game — the nation's most colorful collegiate football game — was again a dazzler. Navy was to have the big attack and had it. Yet the Middies lost 20-7 and were not in the game in the second half. Why?

Army had a few special pass plays, set up by the fine running, an Army tradition. Two of these bombshells in the second half by the Cadets routed the Middies and shocked or delighted 102,000 fans. They made the difference.

The Army line was superb, particularly on defense. Whether coach Tom Cahill deserves all the credit or whether it was some of the residue left by former coach Paul Dietzel, we shall never know. But defense is a Dietzel specialty and Army had it in the 1966 clash.

Navy's quarterback, Cartwright, was a passing whiz in the first half and the mystery during the last half was why the Middies couldn't produce the same kind of aerial artistry. Perhaps it was the Army line.

It was an unusual Army-Navy game in some ways. Army scored first on a full-back end around from almost fifty yards out. Then Navy caught fire and its vaunted passing attack appeared to be more than Army could stop.

At half-time with the score 7-7, it seemed Navy had caught fire and would surely come back with the splendid passing attack which tied the score to add to its points. Yet the Middies—though bottling up Army most of the third quarter deep in Army territory—never caught fire again. And it was Army which scored on two deadly-accurate aerial strikes in the final half!

Cahill thus ended the Cadet season with an 8-2 record, a highly respectable first season as Army coach. If this is an omen of the future, Army might be on the way to some of the gridiron greatness it has exhibited when the nation is at war.

Boycott of Oberammergau Passion Play urged.

App Cagers Rest Up For New Campaigns

Appalachian's basketballers, following three season-opening victories, which led them to the top spot in the Carolinas Conference standings, are in the middle of a nine-day period of inactivity.

Coach Bob Light's Mountaineers will resume league combat next week, playing at Atlantic Christian College Monday and at Elon College Wednesday.

The Apps launched their campaign last week with a 112-78 triumph over Presbyterian, tying the all-time school record for a single game.

A 72-67 win over Pfeiffer in Broome-Kirk Gymnasium resulted in the second game. And then the Mountaineers held off a determined, final-minute rally by Newberry to defeat the Indians 75-73 at Newberry Saturday night.

In the first three contests, the Apps canned 108 of 212 field goal attempts for 50.8 per cent. The ASTC free throw shooting, however, was only 56.6 per cent on 43 of 76. Gil Sprinkle, 5-10 junior guard, leads the individual scoring chart with a 17.7 average per game. He is followed by Danny Beauchamp, 6-5 junior forward, who has a 15.3 average. Allan Price, 6-6 jun-

More Shots Fired?

Dallas, Texas—S. M. Holland says there definitely was a shot fired from behind a fence near the ill-fated Kennedy automobile at the moment of the assassination of the young President in 1963. Holland, a railway employee, was standing on the triple overpass about a half block from the President's car. Testimony from Holland was included in the Warren Commission report.

ior center, has averaged 13.7 per game and Gary Chenevy, 6-1 junior forward, boasts a 12.3 point-per-game mark.

Denny Key, 6-3 sophomore who has averaged 6.3 points per game, is the rebound leader with 31 during the first three games. Price has numbered 28 rebounds, while Beauchamp has nabbed 23.

After the game at Elon, the ASTC cagers' next action will come in the Spindale Tournament Dec. 30-31. The Apps will face Shorter College (Ga.) in the first round and then meet either Catawba or Campbell College on the final day of 1966.

The next home game for the Mountaineers will be Jan. 3 against Erskine.

TAKE CHARGE

Be the first in your neighborhood to own a '67 Chrysler — before you're the last.

We've had popular Chryslers before. But this one looks like it's even going to break (would you believe?) last year's record. Acts like it, too. With the biggest engine options in the entire medium-price field. Biggest dual brakes. And racing-type torsion-bar suspension system. With a unique 3-in-1 seat for some models. Room for 3 when you need it. Converts to individually adjustable seats when you want them. And the passenger side reclines. With an energy-absorbing steering column and well over a dozen other standard safety features. Now a word about our prices. Just a few dollars a month more than you'd pay for one of the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped, moves you up to a full-sized '67 Chrysler Newport. When you've earned a Chrysler, don't buy yourself short. Not when big cars and big deals are our specialty.
