

Married In Atlanta Ceremony

MRS. MICHAEL ERIC GILSTRAP

Miss Joan Kathleen Gilreath became the bride of Michael Eric Gilstrap at 4 p. m. Saturday at the Briarcliff Baptist Church in Atlanta. The Rev. Glen G. Waldrop officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Gilreath of Atlanta, Ga., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hazel of Boone.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, with a bodice of Alencon lace, organza skirt and detachable chapel train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a Dutch cap of beaded Alencon lace petals. She carried cascade of gardenias and wore a diamond lavalier belonging to her maternal grandmother.

Miss Gail Laverne Gilreath was maid of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Jack Lee Wilks, Jr. and Mrs. Ann Gilstrap of Boone; Miss Gail Clement of Greenville, S. C.; Miss Luch Hay of Rome, Ga.; and Miss Kay Leaman of Whitmire, S. C.

The attendants wore floor length gowns of turquoise chiffon with portrait necklines and long full sleeves caught at the wrist with a cuff. A simulated flowing coat was used over the dresses and a band of embroidered flowers were attached to their bouffant veils. They carried cascades of white asters.

Mr. Clarence Hazel Gilstrap was his son's best man. Groomsman were Jack Lee Wilks Jr., Mr. Jack Summers Jr., of Sumter, S. C.; Mr. Thomas Pinckney of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. Peter Feil of Petersburg, Va.; and Mr. Ingram Haley of Pinewood, S. C.

A reception was held in the church.

The bride and groom are graduates of Furman University in Greenville, S. C. Mr. Gilstrap will receive his Master's degree in hospital administration from the Medical College of Virginia in the spring.

After a wedding trip to Hilton Head Island, S. C. the couple will live at 1114 Grove Ave., Richmond, Va.

Marry In Elkin Saturday

MRS. WADE CHESTER ALDRIDGE

Miss Catherine Ann Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buford Hayes Sr. of Elkin, became the bride of Wade Chester Aldridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy James Aldridge, Route 1, Banner Elk, at 4 p. m. Saturday in the Grassy Creek Methodist Church, Elkin. Officiating was the Rev. O. T. Hayes.

Wedding music was given by Miss Abbie Sturgill, organist; Mr. Mike Felts, trumpeter; and Mrs. Rex Cockerham, vocalist. The bridal gown, designed and made by the bride and her mother, was a sheath of crystal covered with silk organza and was highlighted with re-embroidered lace appliques and seed pearls. Matching lace appliques outlined the chapel train which was fastened at the waist. The bride wore cameo earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. A full length illusion veil was fastened to a rosette of crystal and organza topped with seed pearls and irridescent. The bride carried a white lace-covered Bible, topped with white rosebuds, baby breath and satin streamers.

Maid of honor were Miss Connie Warf, Asheville, and Miss Katie Sue Hayes, Elkin. Their sleeveless gowns were autumn blue crystal covered with silk organza, featuring sheath skirts, with empire waists accented by a matching bow. They wore above-elbow length white gloves, circular veils fastened to matching rosettes and each carried a pale pink long stem rose.

The bridesmaids were Miss Judy Mathis of Winston-Salem, Miss Madelyn Castle and Mrs. James Wilcox of Boone and Mrs. Robert Gregg of Lenoir. Their attire was identical to that of the maids of honor.

Miss Julie Anne Hayes, Greensboro, served as the flower girl.

Mr. John Buford Hayes Jr. of Greensboro served as best man. Mr. John Sturgill, Linville; Mr. James Shore, Boone; Mr. Jack Laurence, Winston-Salem; and Mr. Danny Vestal, Booneville, were the ushers.

After the reception in the church fellowship hall, the couple left on a wedding trip to unannounced points.

After the middle of September, the couple will reside in Knoxville, Tenn., where the bride will attend graduate school at the University of Tennessee.
