Cobb-Hampton Vows Said

Miss Patricia Elaine Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey Cobb of Boone, became the bride of Phillip Blaine Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Hampton of Boone, in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Boone Saturday at 4:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Boyce Brooks.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Wanda Critcher, organist and Miss Sandra Cook, soloist.

The bride wore a sheath gown of bridal satin, overlaid by a cage of organza applique with hand-embroidered lace. An organza train, extending from the shoulders, was adorned with matching appliques. A organza rose held her illusion veil and she carried an orchid bouquet.

The Matron of Honor, Mrs. Margot Cobb Brown of Boone, was attired in an empire styled dress of blue brocade with a full train. She carried a long stem white chrysanthemum with a blue center. Her headpiece was a blue satin rose with a short illusion veil.

Bridesmaids were Miss Shelby Hampton, Mrs. Donna Cook Holtsclaw and Miss Joanna Cronland, all of Boone. Miss Erin Cobb served as a junior bridesmaid. Their ensembles were identical to that of the Matron of Honor, with the exception of the full train, which was replaced by a back bow.

As best man, the groom chose this father, Ronnie Ray of Dallas, N. C., served as head usher. Other ushers were Jack Cobb Jr., Mike Cobb, Terry Childers, Bill Cobb, all of Boone; and Darius Lewellyn of High Point, N. C.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride is a graduate of Appalachian High School and is employed by Home Credit Company in Boone. The groom is also a graduate of Appalachian High School and is a rising senior at Appalachian State University.

After a wedding trip to Stuart, Fla., the couple will reside in Boone.

NO ANXIETY ON OIL

President Johnson expressed doubt in a recent news conference that any great acceleration of domestic oil shale development was likely in the present Middle East oil situation. The United States imports relatively little Arab oil.
