Ruby Alyce Lane, daughter of Mrs. Homer Lane of Boone and the late Mr. Lane, became the bride of Sam N. Thompson, Saturday, Sept. 2, at 4 p.m. at the Perkinsville Baptist Church with the Rev. K. Maurice Cooper officiating.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Omer Thompson of Newland and the late Mr. Thompson.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Patsy Julian, organist, and Mr. Bob Barnes, vocalist. Mrs. Bob Barnes directed the wedding and presided at the guest book.

The bride wore a floor length gown of alencon lace and carried a lavender orchid surrounded by white tube roses.

Mrs. Betty Burleson of Fort Pierce, Fla., served as her sister's Matron of Honor. She wore a street length dress of beige lace and carried a long stemmed yellow chrysanthemum.

Serving as best man was Mike Estep of Newland. Ushers were Deryl Burleson, Fort Pierce, Fla.; Tommy Blackburn, Glenwood, N.C.; Robert Oakes of Newland and Bill E. Hartley of Boone.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a blue brocade dress with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige suit with beige accessories and wore a white orchid.

Mrs. Betty Burleson of Fort Pierce, Fla., and Mrs. Bob Barnes of Charlotte were hostesses for a cake cutting given at the fellowship hall of the Perkinsville Baptist Church after the rehearsal on Friday night.

A color scheme of yellow and white was used and the wedding cake was decorated with yellow rose buds. Mrs. Jack Edmisten of Boone served the cake and Mrs. Burl Greene of Boone presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Hodgkin Is Chosen For National Honors

The Board of Advisory Editors of O. C. L. A. announced today that Mrs. Allie A. Hodgkin of Boone has inclusion in the 1967 edition of this national publication.

Outstanding Civic Leaders of America is an annual biographical compilation of approximately 6,000 civic leaders from all parts of the nation. The men and women included were nominated earlier this year by local city officials, Chambers of Commerce and civic groups.

"They have distinguished themselves in civic work to the point of being outstanding," said Doug Blankenship, Past U. S. Jaycee President and Chairman of the Board of Advisory Editors of Outstanding Civic Leaders of America.

Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, President of the United States Conference of Mayors, has said that "The men and women listed in this book through their abilities and services as civic leaders have earned the gratitude of all citizens... they have proved that America is confident of its ability to put aside doubt and take action." The publication, Outstanding Civic Leaders of America, was conceived by leaders of the nation's civic organizations. Its purpose is to nationally recognize the men and women who give their time for community development and inspire others to greater community service.

The book is 7 X 10 inches in size and contains approximately 800 pages. It is bound in a wine-colored hard cover with gold embossing. The 1967 edition is scheduled for publication in January of 1968.
