Letters To The Editor

Says Opportunity For All Is Needed

Dear Editor:

Jesus told of this rich man, who ate sumptuously every day, and of this poor man who lay at his gate, who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. When he died and was gone to hell, the rich man lifted his eyes and saw Lazarus in the bosom of Abraham, and he called out, "Father Abraham, send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue." (See Luke 16:19-31.)

In the Watauga Democrat of May 16 it was reported that the great majority of Wataugans have incomes above what they need for subsistence. In an editorial on the same day was pointed out the foolishness of some who were concerned about the minority.

Do-gooders, particularly outsiders, can be awfully foolish. But it is a fact that not every one in this county was given by his parents the land, the education, or the example to follow so that he could be right now with that great majority who are doing well.

According to Jesus it is worse than foolish to ignore this fact. The great majority of us who are blessed with more than enough must be sure that we are not stepping on the hands of the folks that would grab hold of the ladder below us. (We are not talking about giving anyone our crumbs—no one around here needs those—just our responsibility in this rich land to see that there be opportunity for all.)

The rich man, when he saw that there was no hope for himself, asked that some one be sent to warn his five brothers. Abraham said, "They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them." He who has ears, let him hear.

Sincerely,
HUGH WIRE

NICE LAD

A lady was entertaining the small son of her married friend.

"Are you quite sure you can cut your own hair?" she asked, after watching him for a moment.

"Oh, yessum," he replied without looking up. "We often have it as tough as this at home."

Says Mass Picketing Older Than Republic

To the Watauga Democrat: History is repeating itself. Immediately after the Civil War, a number of Negroes met their Waterloo in their efforts to seize the United States Government, which as we all know was a dire failure.

Personal mass picketing is older than our Republic. In Boston before the Revolution, Samuel Adams had such control over various mobs as to intimidate Tories and royal officials. In 1783, just after peace had been made with England, the Congress of the Confederation was driven from Philadelphia by threats of mutinous troops demanding overdue back pay.

In 1894 Jacob Coxey, the leader of the much publicized "Coxey's Army" marched into Washington, demanding loans, for States, Counties and Municipalities, which would provide employment to relieve the long depression of the 1890's. Coxey and his army of 5000 were driven off the Capital grounds by the Virginia and Maryland militia. Should he return, he would not be pleased to see that his ideals finally caught on, but would feel discriminated against to learn that we still have a militia but will not use it.

In 1932 The Bonus Expeditionary Forces marched into our Capital under Walter W. Waters, only to be driven out and their camps destroyed, by Federal Troops; on orders by President Herbert Hoover. We had Federal troops then and I'm glad to say not afraid to use them.

This is May 1968 which brings another group converging upon our Capital, demanding better schools, two million guaranteed jobs, housing, nutrition and a guaranteed annual income. This demonstration is expected to begin Tuesday May 21. I shudder to think of the ultimate results. I prefer watching The Daniel Boone Wagon Train, if I am able to get there; if not I promise to discontinue my habit of paying taxes which guarantees protection at any cost.

Sincerely,
J. C. CHURCH

"Something Beyond Control Is Coming"

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Key, in her letter to the Democrat, is to be commended for her concern about the racist opinions expressed by Americans. America is built on racism, beginning with the crime of genocide against the Indian, the enslavement of the Negro, and continuing with the murder of thousands of Vietnamese.

The white middle-class American, being by nature a devoted coward, except when in a lynch mob, or in the uniform of his country, does not consider himself a bad fellow at all. He really believes that the Indians were herded into reservations (concentration camps) for their own good, and that the simple-minded "darkies" were happy under slavery. Today, our country's gangster aggression in Vietnam is supported by many people who really believe that we can stop communism by burning women and children with gasoline.

Something is being done, Mrs. Key. All across this land people like you are beginning to see the truth. Our leaders stand exposed by their own lies and trickery. The so-called Christian church has become a ridiculous joke, the colored boy has become a Black Man, and young men are refusing to become instruments of evil. Those who support our corrupt government are afraid because something beyond their control is coming soon.

Sincerely,
G. E. HART, JR.
