Corn Shuck Flowers Make Hit On Market

Mrs. Hagaman recalls "I worked and worked with shucks spread out on my kitchen table.

About the second day, my hus-band came by and said, "Ina, you'll never make any money like this.' I replied, 'I'm not trying to make money. I'm trying to teach myself to make a flower.'"

Eventually, she did, and the flowers were such a hit on the market that she could not fill the requests for them. The next

Miss Watauga Guest Of Boone Jaycettes

The Boone Jaycettes met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Glenn Hodges. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Guy

Flynt and Ron Hester. Mrs. Ford King, second vicepresident, introduced the program for the evening. Represenatives of the Boone Rescue Squad, George Flowers and Bob-by Sherrill, spoke to the group on home safety and poisons. They made several suggestions to keep homes safe from needless poisonings and accidents.

Special guest at the meeting was Miss Myra Davis, Miss Watauga County and finalist in the Miss North Carolina Pageant, Miss Davis spoke on the pageant in Charlotte, She thanked the group for their support and gave several suggestions for the upcoming Miss Watauga

Pageant.
After the program and Miss Davis' talk, president Mrs. Glenn Hodges presided at the Davis' business session. The luncheon held for Miss Davis before her departure to the state pageant was discussed and thank you notes read from guests who attended.

The club voted to contribute to the Jaycee hospital beauti-fication project. The reception and pictures of the reception for Miss Davis given after her return to Boone Sunday were discussed.

Plans for the yearbook were discussed and a committee for the picnic and campout to be held July 4 was appointed. The committee women are Mes-dames Ford King, Jerry Moretz, Bob Bingham, Jim Hastings and Stuart Tugman, chairman.
