

MRS. ROBERT LEERANDALL, JR.

Bridal Parties Given For Miss Pam Storie

Miss Pam Storie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Storie of Boone and Statesville, was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. William Spencer, Highland Park, Mrs. Woody Richardson was co-hostess.

A color scheme of yellow and green was used in flowers throughout the house.

Guests participated in a game of Cupid Bingo and prizes for winning games were awarded to Mrs. Joe Williams and Mrs. Frank Payne.

The honoree was presented a corsage of yellow daisy chrysanthemums and a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Many lovely gifts were opened by the guest of honor and refreshments were served from a table centered with an epergne arrangement of yellow rosebuds, daisies, feverfew and yellow candles.

Mrs. James Storie, the bride-elect's mother was invited to pour punch. Twenty guests attended.

Mrs. Thomas L. Dysard of Blowing Rock was hostess at a luncheon held June 9 at the Blowing Rock Country Club honoring Miss Pam Storie of Boone and Statesville, July 6 bride-elect of Mr. Thomas Wayne Fisher.

Approximately 10 guests, including the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. James Storie of Statesville, and grandmother, Mrs. A. E. South of Boone, were present.

Miss Storie was presented an orchid corsage and several pieces of china in her chosen pattern.

After the luncheon, the group was entertained at Mrs. Dysard's home, "Windswept" on Pinnacle Avenue.

Gardenerettes Garden Visitors

The Gardenerettes met in the home of Mrs. Tom Winkler, Poplar Hill Drive Thursday, June 20.

Prior to the meeting, the group toured the Daniel Boone Botanical Garden for a plant study. Mrs. David Spainhour, president, presided during the business session and new year books were distributed.

The hostess served dessert and coffee to the 12 members present.

MRS. WILLIAM HENRY TESTER

(Flowers photo)

Baird-Tester Wedding Announced

The chapel of the First Baptist Church in Boone was the setting of the wedding of Miss Geneva Dean Baird and Mr. William Henry Tester on Saturday, June 8, at 3:30 p.m. The Rev. Albert Tester, father of the groom, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Jeanne Banner, soloist, and Miss Delene Reese, pianist, presented a program of wedding music.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Baird of Laurel Drive, Boone, the bride is a graduate of Cove Creek High School and is employed by Shadowline, Inc. The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Albert L. Tester of Sugar Grove and attended Bethel High School. Having served two years with the U.S. Army, he is employed by Blue Ridge Shoe Company.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of acetate-rayon crepe, featuring scooped neckline and fitted empire bodice. Illusion sleeves ended in calla points at the wrist and the detachable chapel train fell from crepe bows at the shoulders. Her ballerina length veil of imported silk illusion was held by a cluster of chantilly lace enhanced with seed pearls and crystals. She carried a lace-covered white Bible with a yellow-throated orchid, white carnations and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Rebecca Earp of Vilas who wore a floor length sheath of maize yellow. It featured a fitted bodice with empire waistline and bell sleeves, accented by a detachable train which fell from the empire waist. Her headpiece was a matching pillbox overlaid with an imported silk illusion circular veil, Mrs. Logan Wiseman of Lenoir and Mrs. Thomas H. Hayes were their sister's bridesmaids. They wore dresses of mint green identical to that of the honor attendant and each carried a single long-stemmed yellow mum.

Miss Tressa Tester of Elk Park was flower girl. She was dressed in a formal mint green dress designed identical to the other attendants and carried a basket of small daisy poms. Master David Ward of Sugar Grove, carrying a white pillow bordered with silk illusion and trimmed with lily of the valley, served as ring bearer.

Everett Tester was his brother's best man. Ushers were Marshall Baird of Boone and Kenneth May of Sugar Grove.

For a wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a white ensemble with yellow accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Laurel Drive in Boone.

Miss Baird was honored at a pre-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Martina Ford of Blowing Rock at the home of Mrs. Roy Baird of Boone. The candlelit table was covered with blue overlaid with beige lace. Mints, nuts, punch and miniature cakes were served to the guests. The bride received many lovely gifts.

A rehearsal dinner for the wedding party was served at the Holiday Inn in Statesville Friday night. On Thursday the bride and her mother entertained the bridesmaids at a luncheon at the home of the bride. At this time she presented the bridesmaids with gifts.

Society

(continued from page five)

Blue Ridge Garden Club Has Luncheon

The Blue Ridge Garden Club met June 19 at the Woman's Club House with Mesdames Paul Coffey, Wayne Richardson and W. M. Matheson as hostesses for the luncheon meeting.

Eighteen members and three guests, Mrs. Walter Cook and Miss Nancy Cook of Pasadena, Calif., sister and niece of Mrs. B. W. Stallings, and Mrs. Grady Farthing, were present.

During the business session conducted by Mrs. Ed Hall, president, reports on town beautification projects were made by Mrs. G. K. Moose, Mrs. Wayne Richardson and Mrs. Lee Reynolds. Mrs. Hall told of the litter clean-up project she and Mr. Hall conducted in their area and Mrs. Frank Payne described the landscaping project she and Mr. Payne have started at the corner of East and West Brook Streets. A contribution was voted for the landscaping project at Watauga Hospital.

Displays in the New River Light and Power Company window during the remainder of the month will be made by Mrs. E. T. Glenn, Mrs. Ed Qualls and Mrs. Mae Miller. Mrs. R. W. Watkins gave the wild flower study on the Indian Pink.

The program, "Carefree Perennials", was presented by Mrs. J. B. Winkler who stated that while very few plants were carefree, many favorite perennials were like old friends coming back each year and requiring only minimum care. These provide a long season of bloom and live for many years.

Mrs. Winkler cited as an example the peonies that have been growing in the same spot in the Winkler garden for more than 40 years. Grouping perennials into spring, summer and autumn bloomers, Mrs. Winkler listed such old favorites as primroses, bleeding heart, lily of the valley, peonies, day lilies, astilbe, phlox, hardy asters and mums as plants that will give maximum pleasure to the gardener for minimum care.

Konnarock School Reunion To Be Held

The annual reunion and alumni meeting of the Konnarock Lutheran School will be held on Saturday, July 6 beginning at 11 a.m. Permission has been secured from the United States Forestry Service to use the grounds of the former girls' dormitory for this event.

All friends and alumni of the School are invited to attend and bring a picnic basket for the fellowship lunch.

MRS. TOMMY TAYLOR

Married In Lansing, Mich.

Miss Cynthia Louise Anderson became the bride of Thomas George Taylor on Saturday, June 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth Congregational Church of Lansing, Mich. Dr. Jesse Pindell Pierce officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Anderson of Lansing, Mich., and is a rising senior at the University of N. C. at Greensboro.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Taylor of Boone, the bridegroom graduated from the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill in the School of Pharmacy and is employed by Franklin Drug Company.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of sheer organza with daisy appliques and seed

Engagements

WESTON PHOTO
MISS KATHRYN MAST

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Mast of 1608 East King Street announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn, to Mr. Bobby Joe Winkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Winkler of Boone.

Miss Mast attended Appalachian State University and completed the commercial course at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is presently employed with the Watauga County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Mr. Winkler graduated from Appalachian State University and is teaching at Beaver Creek High School in Ashe County. The wedding will take place Aug. 10.

WESTON PHOTO
MISS GLENDA JUNE WILSON

Mr. and Mrs. James Frank Wilson of Owens Drive, Boone, announce the engagement of their daughter, Glenda June, to Mr. Charles Clifton Byerly, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Byerly of 907 Asheboro Street, High Point.

The bride-elect graduated from Appalachian State University in June and plans to teach in the Fort Bragg Depend-ent school system in the fall.

Mr. Byerly is a member of the 440th Division of the Army Band at Fort Bragg.

An August wedding is planned in Boone.

PHOTO BY FLOWERS
MISS KIM CHAMBLIN

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Chamblin, Jr. of Route 1, Banner Elk, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kimberly Ann, to Mr. Wayne Clifton Binsted.

Mr. Binsted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Binsted of 3918 N. Wakefield St., Arlington, Va.

A late summer wedding is planned at the Boone United Methodist Church.

MISS SHERRY FLACK

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Flack of Route 1, Union Mills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sherry Nell, to Mr. David Reid Cottrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cottrell of Boone.

Miss Flack is a graduate of Appalachian State University with a B. S. degree in math. She will be teaching in Raleigh this fall.

Mr. Cottrell attended Appalachian State University and has served four years with the Air Force. Presently employed by Kirkman Electronics in Winston-Salem, he will be in Raleigh after July 1.

The wedding will be an event of August 18 at the First Presbyterian Church in Boone.

Married At Perksville

Perksville Baptist Church was the setting for the June 22, 4:30 p.m. wedding of Mrs. Ruth Covington of Boone and Mr. T. R. Ballard of High Point. The Rev. O. J. Young officiated.

The Rev. Tommy Hayes, organist, presented a program of wedding music throughout the ceremony.

The couple entered the church together and were married before the altar arranged with white gladiolas and mums.

Mrs. David Brown of Wytheville, Va., was matron of honor and Mr. Came: McRae of Richmond, Va., was best man.

After the wedding, a cake cutting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Greene. Following their wedding trip, the couple will reside in Boone.

Beaver Dam Group Plans Picnic Event

Beaver Dam Development Organization met Tuesday night at Bethel. Mrs. Ellen Ward was elected secretary. A foods committee was appointed for the picnic lunch which will be held Tuesday, July 9 at 12 noon.

A grant of $320 was made for housing improvement for eight families.

It was recommended that each member, men and women, bring a recipe to exchange at the next meeting. It was also recommended that we beautify our communities by setting shrubbery, flowers etc., around our homes and churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Perry are assisting the housing committee.

God music was furnished by Mr. Dayton Greene and Mr. James Adams. Twenty-four people were present. David Glenn is chairman.

Bailey-Randall Nuptial Vows Said

Pleasant Grove Methodist Church of Jonesboro, Tenn., was the setting Saturday, June 15, for the double-ring ceremony which united Miss Glenda Imogene Bailey and Robert Lee Randall Jr. in marriage.

Officiating for the 3 p. m. ceremony was the Rev. P. A. Hawkins. Nuptial music was provided by Jane Beaver, soloist; Bill Randall, trombonist; and Tanya Shook, organist.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John Ernest Bailey of Jonesboro and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Randall of Boone.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal sheath or organza over taffeta with chantilly lace trim and a matching train. Her elbow-length veil of French silk illusion fell from a double crown of net petals, seed pearls and crystals. She carried lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Harold Douglas of Nickelsville, Va., attended her sister as matron of honor. Her organza over taffeta gown was mint green and bows at the shoulders were trimmed with chantilly repeated over the neck and sleeves. Her headpiece was identical to the bridesmaids' and she carried white carnations and yellow pon-pons.

Bridesmaids' gowns matched that of Mrs. Douglas. They were Betsy Randall of Boone, Linda Turner of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Teri Morgan of Augusta, Ga.

Flower girl was little Miss Marianne Mercer of Wilmington and ring bearer was Master Roger Cochran of Jonesboro, Tenn.

Best man duties were carried out by the father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Harold Douglas of Nickelsville, Va.; Bill Randall and Dr. Frank Randall, both of Boone.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bridal couple is at home in Miami, Fla.

Local Affairs

Mr. and Mrs. James Wright of Blowing Rock spent the past weekend in Ft. Bragg with Mr. and Mrs. Garvey Hayes.

Mrs. J. L. Seehorn of Johnson City, Tenn., and Mrs. Clyde Wilson of High Point spent last week with Mrs. Ruby Baird and other relatives in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Horton Moore, formerly of Boone and Roanoke, Va., and now residents of N. Palm Beach, Fla., are spending this week at the Plaza Motel on Bowing Rock Road.

Mrs. Johnny Johnson and Michael Moretz, who celebrated birthdays on June 20 and 23 respectively, were honored with a cook-out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moretz Saturday night. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Wilson and James Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson and Sandra of Zionville, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wilson, Tim, Keva and Travis, Miss Katrina Critcher, Mr. Johnny Johnson, Mr. Steve Snipes, and Misses Dorinda, Monica and Veronica Moretz, all of Boone, and Mr. Bobby Younce of Statesville.

Lt. Col. James Taylor, Mrs. Taylor and daughter Dawn arrived Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Rob Rivers. They plan to return to their home in Arlington, Va., Sunday.

MRS. ELLIOTT D. DULANEY

Married At St. Mary's

Miss Patricia Ann Anders became the bride of Mr. Elliott Daingerfield Dulaney at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the St. Mary's of the Hills Episcopal Church in Blowing Rock. The Rev. William F. Finch officiated at the ceremony.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Anders of Beaufort, S. C., the bride holds a B. A. degree from Furman University and earned her M. A. from Florida State University. She has been employed for the past year as education librarian at the University of N. C. at Charlotte.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Worth Bagley Plyler of Monroe and Blowing Rock, and the late Joseph D. Dulaney. He graduated from the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill and Florida State University with his B. A. and M. A. degrees respectively. Mr. Dulaney is presently employed in the Control Division of Rich's in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Billy Gilstrap of Boston, Mass., was the bride's only attendant.

Mr. Joe D. Dulaney of Charlotte was his brother's best man. Serving as ushers were Lt. Col. John A. Webster of Berkeley, Calif., William H. McMillan Jr. of Charlotte, James W. Page of Pinehurst and William P. Thompson of Greenwood, S. C.

Following their wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple will be at home at 806 Channing Place, Atlanta, Ga. A reception followed the ceremony at the Green Park Hotel in Blowing Rock.

BRIDES TOO?
Bride—Dear, what is the true definition of a groom?
Groom—Why, a groom is a man who takes care of dumb animals.

Cole-Pendill Vows Are Said

Miss Mary Frances Cole and Mr. John W. Pendill, Jr., were united in marriage Saturday, June 8, at 2 p. m. in the Forest Park Presbyterian Church in Statesville, Dr. A. B. McLure, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Fred Lowry, soloist, and Mrs. Ralph Brown, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of Aurora Borealis silk over white slipper satin, featuring yoke and sleeves of imported lace. The chapel train of imported lace was attached to the back yoke. Her six-tiered shoulder length veil of silk illusion was held by pedals edged in seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white rose buds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Donna Martin of Arlington, Va., was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Margaret Anne Winkler of Boone and Miss Kaye Sharpe of Cherokee. They wore semi-fitted street length dresses of pale pink pure China silk, and their headpieces were pink tierras with matching silk illusion. They carried nose gays of pink and white rose buds with full length streamers.

The bridegroom's father served as best man, Ushers were Steven Pendill and Timothy Pendill, brothers of the bridegroom and Luther Robinson, all of Statesville.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Cole of Statesville, formerly of Boone, the bride was educated in Statesville City Schools, Mitchell College and Iredell Memorial School of X-Ray Technology. She is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winkler of Boone.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pendill of Statesville and is a graduate of the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill. He is employed by the Washau Medical Center in Reno, Nev.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Reno, Nev.

A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. The brides table was covered with pure linen cut-work table cloth centered with an arrangement of pink and white baby mums and

MRS. JOHN WALTER PENDILL JR.