Says Democrats Odds-On Favorites In Assembly

BY EULA N. GREENWOOD
CERTAINTY... The question as to how it is figured the next Legislature will be Democratic—as stated here last week—deserves an answer.

power out of our churches and that is the sin of stealing from God"; and he refers to the third chapter of Malachi, last book in the Old Bible.

churches in North Carolina—out of a total of 3,450—now are without pastors.

Deaths

Mrs. M. L. West

Mrs. Alberta Anderson West, 91, of Blowing Rock, widow of Martin Luther West, died Thursday in Blowing Rock Hospital.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Neil Pennell and Mrs. Luther Griffin of Lenoir and Mrs. Lee Nelson and Mrs. Estel Carlton of Blowing Rock; two sons, Luther West of Boone and Earnest West of Lenoir; 40 grandchildren, 62 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

The funeral for Mrs. West was held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Cool Springs Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Clyde Cornett and the Rev. Raynor Matheson. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Hiram F. Dotson

Hiram Finley Dotson, 87, of Boone, died Thursday in Watauga County Hospital.

The funeral was held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Poplar Grove Baptist Church with the Rev. Raymond Hendrix officiating. Burial was in Piney Grove Cemetery.

Mr. Dotson was born in Johnson County, Tenn., to Jordan and Amanda Cornett Dotson. He was a farmer.

Surviving are three sons, Harley Dotson of Hendersonville, James Dotson of Hickory and Warren Dotson of Boone; two daughters, Mrs. Belle Cornett of Kennett Square, Pa., and Mrs. Bonnie Rogers of Winston-Salem; two stepsons, Willie Austin of Blowing Rock and Charles Greene of Elizabethton, Tenn.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Doris Dotson of Boone; 24 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

REVOLT... Mrs. Dan Reel, Sr., of Route 1, Denver—that's a little community in Lincoln County—writes as follows:

"Will you please print this letter addressed to Baptist pastors? What I say applies to 90 per cent of them.

"Why do you ask for and get an expense account? ... Why do you not figure your own expense like we members must do ... You have a free home, plus free power, plus a lot of free food and many of you have new cars given to you.

"Many of you draw a larger salary than most of your members, drive a finer car, wear finer clothes and have your insurance taken care of by the church. Yet, you tell us church members our sins are the cause of no power in the church."

GRANTED... The letter was written to Editor Marse Grant of the Biblical Recorder. He, with straight face and no comment, ran the letter in his publication.

Well, right off the reel, came replies from some of the pastors ... just as Grant knew they would.

Here are some sentences from one written by the Rev. Wilburn Edmondson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Conover, in Catawba County: "... Only know of two pastors who have received a new car after about 20 years of service and they wore out the other one visiting undeveloped Christians. In these churches, a few of the members almost had heart failure when they even thought of the idea ... Usually those who do the griping are ones who toss God a dollar on Sunday and I say I have done my little bit, I will see you again, God, next Sunday ..."

The Rev. Mr. Edmondson says "one sin ... has taken the

Sgt. Porch Receives 4th Conduct Award

Army Sergeant First Class Clarence L. Porch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Porch, Route 3, Boone, N. C., received the fourth award of the Good Conduct Medal June 4 while assigned to the 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment in Germany.

Sgt. Porch received the award for exemplary conduct, efficiency and fidelity in active military service.

Assigned to the regiment's 3rd Squadron, Sgt. Porch entered the Army in July 1954. He has received two awards of the Army Commendation Medal.

His wife, Annemarie, is with him in Germany.

Parachutist's Badge Given Pfc. Edmisten

Army Private Jerry W. Edmisten, son of Mrs. Irene B. Edmisten, Route 2, Banner Elk, N. C., received a Parachutist Badge May 30 upon completion of the Infantry School's three-week airborne course at Ft. Benning, Ga.

His training, which included five jumps from C-130 airplane flying 170 miles an hour at an altitude of 1,250 feet, qualified him as a parachutist.

Pvt. Edmisten's wife, Betty, lives in Triplett.
