Miss Lewis, Mr. Conn Married

St. Elisabeth's Catholic Church of Boone was the setting Saturday for the 3 o'clock wedding of Miss Janice Dare Lewis to Mr. Daryl Patrick Conn. Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Donald Duffy.

A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Mae Denton, organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk organza floor-length gown styled with a high-rise bodice applied in chantilly lace as well as the scalloped portrait neckline, hemline and bell sleeves. Her chapel length train fell from mid-back and was enhanced by lace appliques in a floral design. The veil of bridal illusion fell from a double crown of pearls and crystals and she carried a nosegay of white feathered carnations.

Miss Linda Hardison of Boone was maid of honor. She was attired in anavocado green A-line chiffon over linen floor length gown styled with a high stand-up collar of matching satin which fell to a wide floor length train in back. The front of the gown was highlighted by covered bridal buttons from neckline to waist. She wore a matching horsehair open pillbox with bouffant veiling and carried a single long stemmed yellow rose. Bridesmaids were Miss Sara Hagaman of Boone and Miss Donna Kessell of Winston-Salem. Their dresses were identical to that of the honor attendant and each carried a long-stemmed yellow rose.

Little Miss Kim Lewis was her sister's flower girl. She wore a yellow dress of organza over taffeta attached to a lace bodice and carried a basket of mixed yellow and white daisies.

The bridegroom chose his father as best man, Ushers were Donald and Mike Kerns of Charlotte and Tommy Byrd of Winston-Salem.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Lewis of Boone, the bride is a 1966 graduate of Watauga High School and attended Appalachian State University. She is employed by Rivers Printing Company, Inc.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Charlotte Catholic High and is a rising junior at ASU where he is majoring in history. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Conn of Charlotte.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the Catholic Student Center. The couple is residing at 336 1/2 East King St. in Boone.

Miss Janice Lewis, who became the bride of Daryl (Chuck) Conn Saturday, was entertained Thursday, Aug. 29, at the Chalet Restaurant.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Rob Rivers and Mrs. Armfield Coffey. A color scheme of red and pink was carried out. Twelve guests were present for the luncheon at which the honoree was presented a dinner plate in her china.

Wilmington, N. Y.—Richard G. Snook and Susan H. Hall wanted to remember their wedding as something different. The couple, Justice of the Peace B. J. Cook and several friends rode to the top of Whiteface Mountain and found a secluded point where the ceremony was performed.

Grandfather Club Has Cookout Supper

The Grandfather Community Club had a cookout supper in connection with its business meeting Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned W. Jesters.

Ambrose McLean president presided at the meeting which had 32 members present.

One of the newly organized communities, Grandfather is unique in that it is composed of about half summer residents, many from Florida, and half established residents.

The club was started in 1964 as a farm income recreation area. The lands of the club members were opened to the public for fishing, hunting and hiking by obtaining a permit from a club member.

The community starts two miles west of Foscoe and extends down Highway 105 to the Linville Gap. The name is taken from Grandfather Mountain which is in the community area.

Other officers of the club are Mr. Mitchell, vice-president; Mrs. Cook McGee, secretary; and Mrs. Lena McLean, treasurer.

MRS. DAVID ARNETTE

Miss Jones, Mr. Arnette Wed

The First Baptist Church of Lenoir was the setting Saturday of the 4 o'clock marriage of Miss Laura Louise Jones and David Benjamin Arnette. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. C. Tschudy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chancie Myles Jones Sr. of Lenoir. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Benjamin Arnette, also of Lenoir, formerly of Boone.

Wedding musicians were Mr. Johnny Coffey, organist, and Mr. Lynn Pollard, vocalist. Both are from Lenoir.

The bridegroom, fashioned of chantilly lace and silk organza over peau satin, featured bell sleeves, an empire waist, scooped neckline and a detachable chapel train. Her full
