

BLIND ARE FETED—The annual dinner for the blind of Watauga County was given on Tuesday, Oct. 7, by the Boone Lions Club. Twenty-four persons attended the event held in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church. Entertainment was presented by Jack Guy and his Beech Mountain Ramblers. At the party were (first row) Bertha Dyer, Regina Ward and Gary Ward. On the second row are James Teague, W. Grant Musgrave, Mrs. Grant Musgrave, and Mrs. Willbern Ward. On the back row are W. D. Meredith, president of the Lions Club, Mrs. J. D. Ruppert, Mrs. Nora Stout, Linda Stout, Rachel Ward (holding Kavana), Grady Harmon, Retha Wilson, Gladys Ward, John Henry Dyer, Mrs. Willard Ray, Willard Ray, and Mrs. Gwyn Whisenant, caseworker for the blind.

Student Workers Will Need W-2s

Students who were employed during summer vacation months should safeguard their withholding statements (Form W-2) now being mailed to them by their employers. These forms show the amount of income issued 323 In Attendance At "M" Night Meet

Three hundred twenty-three persons attended the Training Union "M" Night of Three Forks Baptist Association held Sunday night at Blowing Rock Baptist Church. Brushy Fork Baptist was best represented with 54 persons, followed by Three Forks Baptist with 32.

Employers are required by law to furnish employees their form W-2 within 30 days after the last pay check is received by the employee. Parents may claim their children as dependents if the children are full-time students, regardless of the income received by the children, if the parent furnishes the child's chief support.

"What Catholics Believe"

"What Catholics Believe," a weekly course of instruction for non-Catholics, began Monday night at St. Elizabeth Rectory conducted by Father Bob Bond. Father Bond said that any non-Catholic who is interested in learning more about the Catholic church is welcome to attend. The weekly sessions will continue through March 23, 1970. The sessions will be at 7:30 p. m. Content of the course will be based on the book, "Life in Christ," and will include such topics as "The Church of Jesus," "The Sacraments and Worship" and "The Commandments." Also, the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, especially the ecumenical dimensions, will be emphasized.

Revival

Revival services will begin at Brushy Fork Baptist Church Sunday, Oct. 19, at 11 a. m. and continue through the following week with services each morning at 10:30 and each evening at 7:30. The Rev. Glenn Rushing of Marshallville, pastor of Union Grove Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker for the week. At the close of the revival, a baptismal service will be conducted at 7:30 Sunday night, Oct. 26.

Rev. Smith Named Student Advisor

The Rev. Reginald Smith, chaplain at the ASU Wesley Foundation in Boone, has been named advisor for the Western Region of a Methodist student organization in the Western Conference. Students from campuses of all colleges in the state attended the organizational meeting of the new group held last Sunday in Greensboro. An eastern region of the organization will follow the lines of the North Carolina Conference. The Western Region will conduct a planning retreat the weekend of Nov. 1 at the Appalachian Wesley Foundation. Some 80 students are expected to be on hand.
