MRS. JOHN LARRY BISHOP

Wilson, Bishop Vows Said

Miss Judith Carol Wilson became the bride of John Larry Bishop at 7 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 11, at the First Baptist Church of Boone. The Rev. J. Boyce Brooks conducted the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. George Spencer of Greensboro was vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. Graydon Eggers of Boone.

Wearing a candlelight silk-rose gown with jewel neckline of venise lace and seed pearls, the bride was given away by her father. The gown designed and made by Mrs. Marie Bingham of Boone, featured tapered sleeves, A-line skirt and a lace and pearl applique wattle train. Her Victorian crown of illusion extended the length of the train and she carried a white Bible and orchid.

Mrs. Donald Caine, matron of honor, wore a gown of avocado green chiffon over taffeta skirt featuring a bodice of ecru val lace and a satin cummerbund. Her illusion veil was beige.

Bridesmaids were Misses Martha and Judy Bishop of Greensboro, Donna Sparks of Spruce Pine and Mesdames William Capps of Charlotte, Wayne Edwards of Nashville, Thomas Smith of Charlotte and Larry Koone of Boone. They were attired identically to Mrs. Caine and each carried a yellow chrysanthemum. Headpieces were designed by Mrs. Phil Smith of Boone.

Honorary attendants were Mesdames Fred Sigmon and Richard Hason of Boone, Keith Wyke of North Wilkesboro, John Bryan of Charlotte and Miss Margaret Gragg of Charlotte, Miss Lisa Caine, wearing a white satin gown trimmed in avocado and carrying a basket of rose petals, was flower girl. Master Christopher Michaels of Wingate was ringbearer.

J. B. Bishop was his son's best man and ushers were Donald Caine of Greensboro, Danny Wilson of Boone, James Hilton of Rockingham, Charles Merrill of Ft. Jackson, J. C. Boone and Ronald Christopher of Wingate, Gary Caspe of Chester, S. C., and Michael Blackmon of Lancaster, S. C.

Mrs. R. D. Hodges of Boone directed the wedding.

Among those present were 13 out-of-town guests. The couple will reside in Wingate where the bridegroom is professor of Business at Wingate College.

SPECIAL NOTE
A white orchid was escorted by Danny Wilson to mark in loving memory the place of the late Mrs. Jerry Wilson, mother of the bride.

Mrs. M. L. Sparks and Mrs. Frank Wilson, maternal and paternal grandmothers of the bride, and the bridegroom's maternal grandmother Mrs. Victoria Dillard were seated in places of honor.

RECEPTION
The couple received guests in the parlor of the church. The reception was held in the fellowship hall.

The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Estes at the door of the receiving line. Mrs. Lewis Sparks introduced guests to the wedding party and the grandmothers were introduced by Mrs. Muriel Glass. Mrs. Jay Beach presided over the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sigmon directed guests to the reception table where Mrs. Marie Bingham, Mrs. Richard Hudson and Margaret Gragg served.

A color scheme of yellow and white was used to complement the three-tiered wedding cake. Ivy was intertwined in the wrought iron at the entrance of the hall.

PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ford King and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Beach were hosts to a dinner Oct. 4 honoring Jud Wilson and Larry Bishop. A color scheme of green and yellow decorated the Buchanan home. The 23 guests included the couple's families, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sigmon and Rev. and Mrs. J. Boyce Brooks. The bride and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Sparks, were presented white chrysanthemum corsages and the couple received an engraved silver knife for their wedding reception.

Miss Wilson was honored at an Oct. 6 luncheon given by Mrs. Fred Mast and Mrs. Dee Winkler at the Holiday Inn. The eight guests included Mrs. M. L. Sparks, Mrs. Ralph Estes, Mrs. Albert Farthing, Mrs. Joe Minor and Mrs. Cleone Hodges.

Mrs. Mark Hodges, Mrs. John Greene and Mrs. Fred Sigmon were hostesses to a dessert hour at the Cardinal Restaurant Oct. 8 honoring Miss Wilson. The bride-elect received a corsage of pink carnations and gifts of linen.

On Oct. 10 the couple were honored at a rehearsal party given by his parents and sisters in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. Fifty people including the wedding party and relatives attended.

Mrs. Ala McGuire, Mrs. J. E. Holshouser Sr. and Mrs. Keith Wyke of North Wilkesboro honored Miss Wilson, her bridesmaids and honorary attendants at the McGuire home

Voter League To Aid Bond Campaign

The Watauga League of Women Voters are teaming up with members of the Boone Jaycees in a house-to-house canvass in support of the Nov. 4 school bond issue.

The project is one of two new programs being carried out by the league this fall.

Under current study is a project on the nation's Electoral College. The project is being directed by Mrs. A. M. Denton and Mrs. Frank Stekel. At their meeting this week, the league will take a member poll on the method of electing the President.

Three members of the league, Mrs. Dan Duke, Mrs. Kenneth Webb and Mrs. Robert Nicklin, recently attended a meeting of the Hickory league at which U. S. Rep. James Broyhill spoke. He explained his vote against the Federal Aid to Education program on the grounds that the money was not available. He said he felt that emphasis should be placed on balancing the budget.

Mrs. Stekel attended the meeting of the Southeastern Regional Conference of the League in Atlanta last month.

League members came recently from Elon College, Asheville and Greensboro to assist in orientation of the new board.

MRS. JOSEPH DAVID CRITCHER

Married In Roanoke

The Victory Baptist Church, Roanoke, Va. was the setting Saturday, Oct. 4, for the 7 p. m. wedding of Linda Dale Claytor and Rev. Joseph David Critcher. The Rev. H. R. Thompson and Rev. Robert Mills officiated.

Miss Linda Thompson accompanied the bride and groom, who sang "All to Jesus, We Surrender".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pea du sole and alenon lace gown with empire bodice, portrait neckline, lace sleeves and lace applique waistline. The pleated back of the A-line skirt swept into a full circular chapel train. Her tiered veil was held by a headpiece of lace petals adorned by seed pearls and crystal loops and she carried a white Bible topped with orchids and satin streamers.

Miss Judy Shepherd of Lynchburg, Va. was maid of honor and Miss Erma Davis of Jersey Shore, Pa. was matron of honor. Carrying orchids and ivy streamers on their white Bibles, they wore slipper length gowns of pink satin with fitted empire bodices finished with pink and green braid trim. Wearing green satin gowns similarly designed, the bridesmaids were Misses Linda Kitchen, Barbara Kowalsky and Mrs. Billy J. Carlee and junior bridesmaid was Miss Vanessa Grishaw. All are of Lynchburg. Little Miss Robin Grishaw of Lynchburg was flower girl and Master Randy Critcher of Boone was ringbearer.

Ronnie Thompson of Roanoke was best man and ushers were Harry, John and Truman Critcher, all of Boone; William H. Moore Jr. of Lynchburg and Steve Shumaker of Winston-Salem.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pryor Claytor of Lynchburg, the bride graduated from Brookville High and is employed by Kern's Bakery. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Critcher of Route 4, Boone, is an alumnus of Appalachian High and Shenandoah Bible College. He is pastor of Gospel Baptist Church in Roanoke and a part-time employee of A & P.

After a reception at the Vinton War Memorial, Vinton, the couple left for a northern wedding trip. They will live in Lynchburg for a short period before leaving for Mexico where they will be missionaries.
