Special Notice

1930 - 1931 County and Town Taxes

It appearing that there is some misapprehension as to the law relative to tax foreclosure suits recently instituted by Chowan County and the Town of Edenton, particularly as to the six months period allowed claimants to set up their respective claims, this is to notify all delinquents, and other persons holding liens against the property described in the complaints that the six months provision written in the tax law merely applies to the surplus from the proceeds of sale after all taxes, penalties, interest and costs have been paid. Therefore, all such persons should, in order to protect their interests, pay said taxes, penalties, interest and costs before interlocutory judgment of foreclosure is entered, which may be on the first Monday after the expiration of thirty days from personal service of summons.

J. N. PRUDEN,

Attorney for Chowan County and the Town of Edenton in Tax Foreclosure Suits.
