Chevrolet To Display New Models Saturday

Chevrolet's two new lines of cars for 1935 will be on display Saturday in the salesrooms of the Chowan Motor Co. Inc., Chevrolet dealers, Queen street. The announcement was made today by O. B. Perry, of the firm.

"Embodying graceful new lines, as well as mechanical refinements resulting in sparkling performance, and economy of a high order, the new Master Series promises to be a sensation in the low-priced field," said Mr. Perry. "The Special Series will provide big car performance, comfort, and driving ease at a price which will place it within reach of millions."

"With these two great lines for 1935, Chevrolet is assured of breaking even the fine records established by last year's car. They will offer an all-round value untouched in the low-priced field."

IN THE CLOUDS

"Does Hamm really feel that he has elevated the stage?"

"Well, it works that way. Every manager who has produced one of his plays has gone up."

Wife—What has become of the old-fashioned kids, who were taught that children should be seen and not heard?

Husband—They are all in the deaf-and-dumb asylums.

ROTARIANS HEAR LEY DISCUSSED AT NOON

The Rotary Club held luncheon at noon today in the House when Senator Ley discussed likely legislation which will come before the assembly.

A Proven Fact.

THAT Knee-Action is safe in every respect and we would like to extend a special invitation to the public and especially to those who have misrepresented the Chevrolet car with Knee-Action and see for themselves a new 1934 Chevrolet Coach that was wrecked Christmas eve, and you will find that Knee-Action was not the cause of this car being wrecked as was reported.

You will also find that the Knee-Action this car has not been damaged in the least

YOUR INSPECTION IS INVITED!
