Delivers Interesting Address

Dedicatory exercises centering about the installation of the new colfors of the Edward G. Bond Post, American Legion, attracted a comfortable sized audience to the High School auditorium Tuesday night, and provided the occasion for an entertaining talk on Legion ideals and hopes by Josephus Daniels, Jr., business manager of the News and Observer, of Raleigh.

The ceremonies proper, dignified in their simplicity, were the first of the nature ever held in Edenton, and were commented on favorably by all those in attendance at the meeting. Inclement weather: largely interferred with the size of the gathering as plans had been made for visiting Legion delegations from all over the Albemarie, but except for District Commander Harry T. Greenleaf and Commander Roland Garrett, of Elizabeth City. zabeth City, nome of the other expected guests arrived.

Mr. Daniels, who is a candidate for State Commander of the Legion, and who has been going about the State in support of that candidacty, commented on the historical associations of Edenton and the Albemarle, and referred to his forebears having come from this section. He advocated Americanism programs, rehabilitation work, a strong mational defense program and the premotion of child welfare. Outlining his views on Legion policies he spoke about the immediate payment of adjusted service certificates as intended by the Pat-man bill now up for Presidential signature or veto.

When this is paid," he said, "$34.622.162.80 will come into North Carolina. Veterans of Chowan county will get $124,282.52; Dare, $57,-305.24; Bertie, $284,697.51; Gates, $106,229.82; Hertford, $193,242.68; Perquimans, $117,578.69; Currituck, $73,917.36; Camden, $60,158.38; and Pasquotank, $210,879:26. We ask only what has been promised at a time veal you when the early fulfillment of that you ins promise will not only aid the vetering power and setting men free to serve again who have been imprisoned by the poverty of our time."

The ceremonies were in charge of rying sifles and acting as color guards. Floyd White delivered an invocation and followed this by show-. ing his versatility as a song leader. A number of old-time war songs were engaged in by the audience. Mr. Brown then introduced Mrs. M. P. Whichard and Mrs. Daniels and Commander Garrett. Commander Gre leaf spoke briefly relative to orthopedic clinic at Elizabeth referred to the well-known ho ity of Edenton, and explained Le rehabilitation work during the p twelve months in this section.

Comedy and Snappy Songs

The Edenton Fire Department, which will sponsor a local talent play to be held in the school auditorium on May 30-31, has arranged to pre-"Black-Eyed Susan" instead of the "Dixie Blackbird Minstrels" as has previously been announced. This change was made due to the latter entertainment having been staged in Edenton a couple of years ago.
"Black-Eyed Susan" is filled with comedy and an evening of delightful entertainment is assured. The play also includes a number of snappy songs, which include: "A Song of Gardens," "Black-Eyed Susan," "Gar-Gardens," "Black-Eyed Susan," "Garden Implements," "Dummy Song,"

"Haint Song," "Moonbeams," "Old Maids," "Roaming Thru the Roses,"
"Six Gardeners," "The Bug Song,"
"Gold at the End of the Rainbow."
A coach for the play will arrive about to days before the play is to be presented, when rehearsals will be held each night. Although none of the cast has been

Jim Daniels Challenges Ex-Service Men to Game of Baseball; Oid-Timers on Both Sides

In an effort to at least have some sort of baseball in Edenton, Jim Daniels on Tuesday issued a challenge to play a baseball team from Ed Bond Post of the American Legion, or any other team in Edenton, for that matter. Mr. Daniels will select his team from Chowan Tribe of Red men and is very anxious for his challenge to be accepted.

According to Mr. Daniels an interesting game or series of games could be arranged which would furnish baseball fans with plenty of amusement. The Red Men team would most likely be composed of some good present day players who would be assisted by some of the old timers.
Among Mr. Daniels prospects are himself, Jimmy Partin, Gene Cobb, Tom Hoskins, Arthur Hollowell, Wilbert Smith, Jim Boyce, J. Edwin Bufflap, Hector Lupton, Carlton Mason, and a host of others who will try for the team if the challenge is
