Funeral Held Monday For Mrs. T. E. Harrell

Many hearts were saddened during the week-end due to the death of Mrs. T. E. Harrell at her home on the Yoopim Road. Mrs. Harrell had been ill for only about a week, her death resulting from an attack of double pneumonia. She died Sunday morning.

Mrs. Harrell was 55 years of age and by her kindly disposition, Christian character and devotion as a wife and mother had won for herself friends with whom she came in contact.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Edenton Baptist Church, with Rev. E. L. Wells, her pastor, officiating. The service was largely attended and the profusion of floral offerings attested to the love and esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in Beaver Hill cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband, T. E. Harrell, and nine children, Mrs. Shack Small and Mrs. Jesse White, of Edenton; Mrs. John Burton Harrison, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Ernest Stillman, of Suffolk, Va.; Edwin Harrell, of Hertford; Augustus, Leslie, William and Durwood Harrell, all of Edenton. Ten grandchildren also survive.

The pallbearers were: J. B. Webb, Neal Hobbs, A. C. Boyce, J. C. Blanchard, of Hertford, N. K. Rowell and J. C. Dail.

Gladys Griffin Funeral Held Here Monday

Friends and relatives in Edenton were shocked Saturday upon receipt of the news of the death of Miss Gladys Ward Griffin. Miss Griffin, 26 years of age, died in the Protestant Hospital, Norfolk, Va., where she was a registered nurse, following an illness of about a week's duration. She succumbed to an attack of pneumonia.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Edenton Baptist Church with her pastor, Rev. E. L. Wells, in charge. He was assisted by Rev. W. F. Walters, of the Methodist Church, and Rev. W. T. C. Briggs. The services were largely attended and the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Interment took place in the Beaver Hill Cemetery. As a last tribute to their friend, the Young Woman's Bible Class, of which she was a devoted and greatly beloved member, very touchingly sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

Miss Griffin is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, both of whom survive her.

The pallbearers were: Lloyd E. Griffin, C. T. Griffin, Ambrose Griffin, John Griffin, of Norfolk, Va., Alvin Griffin, of Norfolk, Va., and Robert Griffin, of Elizabeth City.

Boy Scouts Return From Camping Trip

The Edenton Boy Scouts returned from Point Harbor Tuesday, after a week's camping trip. A very enjoyable trip was reported and Scoutmaster John W. Graham is well pleased with the conduct of the boys while in camp.

Despite reports of storms along the coast the Scouts enjoyed fine weather with the exception of last Thursday night when about midnight the tents were taken down and the boys slept in the home of Mr. Gibbs on account of a heavy wind.

Those who were in the camping party were: Scoutmaster John W. Graham, Kermit Layton, assistant scoutmaster, Charles Wales, Jr., special camp assistant, and the following scouts: Jack Bond, Tom Byrum, Murray Byrum, Muriel Byrum, Graham Byrum, Robert Chesson, William Coffield, Joe Conger, Elbert Copeland, Wendell Copeland, James Cozzens, Sonny Davis, Thomas Elliott, Melvin Griffin, Jimmie Hassell, Ewell Hobbs, Fred Hoskins, Meredith Jones, Theodore Roberts, Robert Satterfield, Billy Shepard, Clyde Spencer, Roy Spruill, Bill Whichard, Alex White, and Emmett Wiggins.

X. E. Copeland Shows Signs Of Improvement

Right much concern is evidenced over the condition of X. E. Copeland, who was taken to the Protestant Hospital in Norfolk, Va., last Saturday night following a sudden illness in the Jno. C. Bond Company store on Wednesday. Mr. Copeland was suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage. Since being in the hospital his spine has been punctured to relieve pressure on the brain and last reports were that he was showing right much improvement.

It is thought, however, barring any other complications, that it will be necessary for him to remain in the hospital for several weeks and even then he will have to refrain from working.

Louise Smith Weds Rocky Mount Man

News has been received here of the marriage of Miss Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Edenton, to Mr. Lennox Odom, of Rocky Mount. The wedding took place Wednesday, Sept. 4, in Rocky Mount. Mr. and Mrs. Odom are making their home in Tarboro, where Mr. Odom is engaged in the cleaning and pressing business.

T. C. BYRUM

Deciding a few years ago "to go out for business," Cam Byrum of the Byrum Bros. Hardware Company, has accomplished his purpose. He experimented with various forms of advertising until he is now satisfied that newspaper advertising is the best medicine to get customers in the store. When arriving at this store the sort of service and attention is given that makes customers want to come back. It has been necessary to add to the clerical staff, who remain in the store as well as solicit business in the adjoining counties. The place has become sort of a headquarters for farmers to meet and discuss their problems.
