

R. A. BAKER DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Yeopim Farmer Stricken With Heart Attack While at Work on Farm Wednesday Morning

Friends and relatives were shocked Wednesday morning to learn of the sudden death of R. A. Baker, prominent farmer of the Yeopim section. Mr. Baker, 69 years of age, had been in apparent good health and was about his duties on his farm when he was suddenly struck with a heart attack and died shortly thereafter, death occurring about 9:00 o'clock. He had been a resident of Chowan County for the past 25 years, coming to Chowan from the Belvidere section of Perquimans County. He was very well known, loved and respected by a host of friends and had proved a very valuable citizen. In his early years he became affiliated with the Bethany M. E. Church of Perquimans County, of which church he was a member at the time of his death. He was also a member of the Chowan Tribe of Red Men.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eugenia Baker, two sons, W. E. Baker, of Edenton, and R. E. Baker, and three daughters, Mrs. William Jethro and Miss Pearl Baker, of Chowan County, and Mrs. James E. Lacy, of South Mills.

Funeral services will be held from the home this (Thursday) afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, and interment will be made in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

DEATH CLAIMS

MRS. T. D. BYRUM

On Visit To Daughter In Norfolk When Stricken With Attack of Angina Pectoris

Sudden death claimed another of Edenton's oldest residents yesterday when Mrs. Kate Byrum, 80, widow of the late Thomas D. Byrum, for 14 years Register of Deeds of Chowan County, succumbed to an attack of angina pectoris while visiting a daughter, Mrs. D. H. Bradshaw, in Norfolk, Va. Except for a slight attack of malaria from which she had fully recovered before her annual visitation to her daughter, the deceased had been in perfect health since 1931 when she was previously stricken with the malady that brought death on Wednesday.

The day before her death Mrs. Byrum penned a letter to her daughter here, Miss Emma Byrum, in which she wrote happily of her stay with Mrs. Bradshaw, on Maryland Avenue, saying she was enjoying herself to the utmost and was feeling better than she had for years, although Mrs. Bradshaw had been complaining Tuesday and had had the doctor. Word received here yesterday showed that the aged resident had arisen and was at breakfast when seized. She died within a few minutes afterward, at about 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Byrum was a native of Edenton, having been born on the estate of her father, the late Peter F. White, occupying as it did in those days the entire block on North Broad Street, bounded on the south by Gale Street and on the North by Albemarle Street. Of late years she had lived on West Eden Street. Her husband died in 1910.

Besides the two daughters mentioned, the deceased is survived by an only sister, Mrs. R. F. Cheshire, now living adjacent to the home where both were born, a son T. P. Byrum, of Glendale, Cal., whom she visited a few years ago, two stepdaughters, Mrs. S. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. L. Wiggins, of Edenton, and a step son, Augustus Byrum, of Raleigh.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete as The Herald went to press, the family awaiting word from the son living in California.

Two Face Recorder Tuesday Morning

A brief session of Recorder's Court was held Tuesday morning when only two cases appeared on the docket.

Ernest Brown, colored, was up on a charge of assault with a pocket knife upon Melton Jordan, also colored. According to Brown's testimony, the cutting, which occurred near Center Hill and required 13 stitches to be taken to close the wound, was done while playing and was unintentional. The court, however, found him guilty and sentenced him to 90 days, to be suspended upon payment of the doctor's bill and a fine of $10 and cost. He was further ordered to show good behavior for 12 months.

The Work of Credit

Bank Shows How It Gives Needed Aid to All Classes of Prudent Borrowers

How a bank loan portfolio presents a graphic cross section picture of the business of its community is disclosed by the description which a midwestern bank recently gave of its loans to customers. It revealed also how closely interwoven with its neighbors' varied lives are the threads of the bank's financial helpfulness.

This description showed that the bank had made a loan of $100,000 to a local shoe manufacturer to purchase materials, discount bills and meet current requirements.

To a wholesale grocer $95,000 had been advanced for the purchase of inventory, the loan to be repaid over a period in accordance with specified terms set forth in the loan agreement.

Assistance in Personal Matters

Another loan had been made to a home owner to the amount of $200 for painting and repairing. This was made in cooperation with the Federal Housing Administration and was being repaid in twenty-four monthly installments of $8.33 each.

A dentist had been loaned $300 to purchase new equipment. He was paying off the debt out of his professional earnings as they came in.

To a large domestic refrigerator distributor $30,000 had been granted on warehouse receipts to finance dealer shipments.

A home owner had been granted a $3,000 mortgage loan to be repaid in three years.

One thousand dollars had been advanced to an office worker on the cash surrender value of his insurance policy to aid him in meeting an emergency.

The National Total

If each of these various examples were multiplied many times the result would represent the total volume of credit cooperation which the bank was extending to its neighbors in its community, for aggregate loans to all its customers amounted to more than twelve million dollars.

If the typical examples here given were multiplied by many millions of times the result would represent the total economic cooperation which the banking system of the country as a whole is extending to aid the innumerable personal, professional, industrial and commercial activities which make up the whole business life of the nation. The nationwide total of such loans is in excess of 20 billion dollars.
