MASONS ELECT NEW OFFICERS FOR YEAR

J. A. Curran Named Master of Unanimity Lodge For 1936; Installation Tonight

Officers for the year 1936 were elected on Thursday night by Unani-mity Lodge, No. 7, A. F. & A. M., when a large number of the membership was present.

The new set of officers includes J.
A. Curran, who replaces W. C. Bunch as master; W. M. Wilkins, senior warden; G. A. Helms, junior warden; C. H. Wood, treasurer, and J. Edwin Buflap, secretary.

Mr. Curran, the new master, has appointed the following subordinate officers, who together with the elective officers, will be installed at the meeting of the lodge tonight: Senior deacon, J. R. Byrum; junior deacon, C. W. Sawyer; senior steward, B. F.
Britton; junior steward, J. A. Crawford; chaplain, W. C. Bunch; tiler, Paul Olsson; educational secretary,
A. S. Hollowell; orphanage chairman, E. T. Rawlinson; degree team captain,
H. A. Campen; publicity chairman, E.
W. Spire; auditing committee, Dr.
W. S. Griffin, R. E. Leary and J. E.
Jackson.

The lodge has had a very successful year, having an increase in membership, and among other things boasts one of the most unique meeting places in the State since the room has been decorated by Paul Olsson.

String Music Jan. 10 At Beech Fork School

The "Chowan Coon Hunters" will put on a show of string music and black face comedy at Beech Fork school Friday night, January 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. The show will be divided into three parts: first, old-time tunes with Sidney Ward, violin; Roy Evans, banjo; Perlie and Emmett Ashley, guitars; second part, a snappy blackface comedy act, "Ham and Eggs," presented by Perlie and Emmett Ashley, with an assortment of jokes, songs and peppy music. The last part will be an all request program.

These musicians are well-known throughout the Albemarle, having won first prize in several fiddlers conventions.

The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy an evening of splendid entertainment. There will be a small admission charge.

FIVE MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED OVER WEEK-END

Five marriage licenses were issued by Mrs. Maurice L. Bunch since December 24, all of these couples being white. The contracting parties were as follows:

James Partin and Billie Goodwin, both of Edenton.

B. F. Wilkins and Bessie Nixon, both of Chowan County.

Alex Raulerson, of Fort Pierce, Fla., and Nancy Twiddy, of Edenton.
E. H. Barringer, of Salisbury, and Ada Cozzens, of Edenton.

Mathias Chappell, of Chowan County, and Gladys Mitchell, of Edenton.

Christmas Seal Sale
Report Incomplete

Due to the closing of schools for the holidays, a complete report of the sale of Christmas Seals in Edenton has not been made, Mrs. J. A.
Moore reporting that $134 worth of the little seals having been sold, with the schools, colored churches and the Edenton Cotton Mill yet to be heard from.

Mrs. Moore, chairman of the drive, is very well pleased with the response made to this effort to fight tuberculosis and hopes to be able to make a full report by next week.

STARS IN OUTSTANDING PICTURE

Eleanor Powell, Robert Taylor and June Knight in "Broadway Melody of 1936" which will be the feature attraction at the Taylor Theatre, Edenton, Monday and Tuesday, January 6 and 7.

Watermelon Time For W. T. Perry

W. T. Perry, of Rocky Hock, this week laid further claim to his title of watermelon king of Chowan County. Besides raising the largest crop of the largest melons, Mr. Perry now claims the distinction of being the last person to sell a melon of the 1935 crop.

Mr. Perry had two watermelons in his store in Rocky Hock and on Monday sold one of them to George Goodwin for 25 cents, the other melon still being in the store. The melon appeared to be solid and was in good shape, but Mr. Goodwin carried it away before applying a knife.

S. A. White Dies
After Long Illness

Elizabeth Chappell, Elizabeth City.

SPLIT IN DEBATE

The debating teams of Colerain and Windsor High Schools split in the debate held last week when the Win-dors negative debaters won over the Colerain affirmatives in Colerain. The Colerain affirmative team, however, journeyed to Windsor to win their side of the query.
