Billiard Champ In Edenton Monday

Billiard enthusiasts will have an opportunity to witness experts in the art at Chap's billiard parlor during the coming months when the most outstanding performers in the country will appear in Edenton. The first of these artists will be in the city on Monday night, when James Caras, the new world's champion in pocket billiards will be the attraction. His performance will begin at 10 P. M., and doubtless will draw a capacity crowd.

Others who are scheduled to appear here are Allen Hall, runner-up for the world's three-cushion title in 1935; Ruth McGinnis, women's world professional pocket billiard champion; George Kelly, 1934 national pocket billiard champion; George Spears, national instructor and lecturer; Willie Hoppe, world's 18.1 backline and cushion caron billiard champion, and Joseph Procita, noted pocket billiard instructor.

This group of experts have been employed by the National Billiard Association of America, under whose supervision the demonstrations are conducted.

Three Cases Before Recorder On Friday

Recorder's Court had quite a lengthy session Friday morning when three cases were disposed of. The majority of the time was consumed by the hearing of testimony in the case of Lottie Brinkley, colored, who was charged with feloniously assaulting William Tripp with intent to kill. The latter was severely cut in two places on the left side of his chest near the heart, on the left arm and back necessitating a total of 23 stitches to close the wounds. The affair followed an argument between Tripp and his wife which finally involved Lottie.

Judge J. N. Pruden ruled that the cutting possibly resulted in self-defense but that more than likely the defendant went to the extreme with her foe. She was sentenced to 90 days in jail or to pay the doctor's bill, medicine and court costs and further show good behavior for a period of 12 months.

Joe Bunch, Jr., white filling station operator, plead guilty to operating a car under the influence of liquor, but not guilty to reckless driving. He was sentenced to 60 days or $50 and court costs on the first count, and 30 days or $25 and costs on the second charge. His driving license was also revoked for a period of 72 months. Floyd Mit Ward, who was arrested with Bunch, was tried earlier in the week before Justice of the Peace W. S. Summerell, was taxed with the cost of court.

Herbert Lane, white man, was found guilty of driving an automobile while under the influence of whiskey and being drunk and disorderly in a public place. The latter charge was not pressed, while on the first charge he was given 60 days or $50 and costs and his driver's license revoked for 12 months.

GROWTH OF TREES

The length of time required for trees to reach merchantable size varies with the kind of tree and the use to which its wood is to be put. Posts and crossies can be grown in from 10 to 30 years. Most kinds of quick-growing trees will be large enough to add to the farm income at the age of 20 to 40 years.
