Theatre Packed For Amateur Program

With just about as many as the building would hold, the amateur night program last Friday night in the Taylor Theatre proved the increasing popularity of this form of amusement. The program was composed entirely of colored talent, including singing and dancing. Seven acts were put on by the following:

The Washboard Boys, Willie Lambeth, Willie Walker, Roy Davenport, Manuel Morse, and Willie Jordan; the Pilgrim Four, Willie Sprull, Joe Willie Garrett, Elijah Privott and Robert Privott; Reuben Burke; Johnny Wilson, Lawrence Collins and Herbert Granby.

The prize was forced to again be split when Reuben Burke for his Charleston dance and Johnny Wilson for his crooning brought about the same amount of applause.

There will be two amateur nights this week, the same children appearing tonight and Friday night in connection with Shirley Temple's picture, "Littlest Rebel." The $10 prize will be divided each night on this account. All the children on the program are less than 12 years old, and will present singing, harmonica music, acrobatic stunts, accordion, tap dancing and a novelty band. The management again expects a crowded house to witness the youthful artists.
