

Chowan Club Meets With Mrs. Byrum

On March 23rd, at the home of Mrs. John T. Byrum ten women met Miss Colwell for a demonstration. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. John T. Byrum, presided. After the opening exercises by Mrs. Lindsey Evans, we sang "A Song of the Open Country," and "The Home-Makers' Song," with Mrs. Baumgardner at the piano. At roll call each answered to her name with a suggestion about sewing. The last minutes were read and approved. Several explained why they did not transplant the shrubbery at the Chowan High School building.

In order to make a high score, we were urged to attend on April 9, at 10 A. M., the District meeting in the Central High School near Elizabeth City. Mr. Frank Jeter, of State College, Raleigh, is to speak. Those going must take their lunch, the dessert and something to drink will be furnished by the Central High Club.

On March 31, 2:30 P. M., the County Albemarle Federation is to meet in Edenton. Entertaining speakers will be Richard S. Orr on "Annals and Perennials"; Mrs. J. L. Weller, "Flower Arrangement."

The Paul Ricks' bus for the Washington, D. C. trip, will leave Edenton at 4:30 A. M., April 16. Cross Roads at 4:45 A. M., same day. Return at 10:30 P. M., on April 17. Fare of $6.00 with lodging for the night must be paid in advance. Meals are not included in this and lunch for the first day may be carried. Chowan's number is limited to 30; for Gates to 17; for Perquimans to 15.

Miss Colwell then gave us type-written directions for painting and papering walls, and explained them. She also gave us samples of Bon-Ami and Calmut baking powder, with several pamphlets. Noticeable among these was one on home gardening, another of salmon recipes, and still another on cakes, etc. using Calmut baking powder.

In the absence of the recreation leader, Mrs. R. H. Hollowell put on a contest in which, from written descriptions, we guessed the names of the C. H. S. teachers, the names of the club members, and of several neighborhood folks. It was quite entertaining.

Mrs. Byrum, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Bush, served individual cakes with orangeade.

We thank them. The next meeting is on April 13, with Mrs. Alfred Perry.

M. W. WINBURN, Secretary.
