

RAMBLING WITH THE Rambler

By "LITTLE BUFF"

Notes From the Cuff

The best "smart saying" the Rambler heard last week-end was broadcast by the newsmen in Durham, selling sports extras after the game: "Georgia Tech's Tornado only a breeze!" . . .

Tom Burnette came through with flying colors for the Carolina team, by using his educated toe on the extra points. In other words the difference between victory and possible defeat.

Three Cheers for N. C. State!!! They won a game . . .

RAMBLER

Rambler Loses High Average

With the wind blowing against the Rambler last week-end, causing him to miss 8 and tie 2 out of his 35 attempted predictions, his present average is 66 right, 15 wrong and 4 ties out of 85 games during the last three week-ends.

This week the contests seem to be as close as ever with neither team having any great advantage in most of the games.

A great deal depends on the outcome of two games for the State of North Carolina—Duke-Tennessee, and the Carolina-Tulane battles. Should both Duke and Carolina come through victorious, the set-up would not only be perfect for the Carolina-Duke game, but also might have a bearing on the eastern team selected to play in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Should they get through their tough opponents this Saturday they stand a better than even chance to participate in the Tournament of Roses.

The Rambler changed tactics this week in making his selections in this State. Last week he picked only one North Carolina team to win, but this week he has gone the limit in backing the Old North State aggregations, although he is going to have to have an enormous share of luck on his side to come out on top.

At that, here they are, 40 of them this week—Boy, the Rambler is surely a glutton for punishment.

North Carolina-Tulane—Things look mighty black for the Tar Heels, with only an outside chance to win, but here's hoping—

Duke-Tennessee—Tennessee should prove a real test against the Devils, but not quite.

N. C. State-V. P. I.—The Rambler can't figure out that State team, but he does know that the Gobblers aren't so hot, so here's to State.

Davidson-Citadel—The Wildcats to perform well after their rest last week-end.

Wake Forest-George Washington—A mighty close one, but the Rambler is sticking to the North Carolina teams this week.

Alabama-Loyola—Alabama. Arkansas-Louisiana State—By flipping the coin, L. S. U.

Army-Springfield—Army. Auburn-Georgia—Leaning toward the Tigers.

Baylor-Texas A. and M.—The Rambler believes the Aggies victory over Texas Christian last week-end was a fluke, hence, selecting Baylor.

Brown-Penn—Penn. Bucknell-W & J—Bucknell.

California-Washington—The Golden Bears proved a great disappointment in last week's defeat by UCLA.

Washington. Carnegie Tech-Holy Cross—A not so sure vote for the Crusaders.

Catholic U.—Mississippi—Mississippi. Centenary-Texas Tech—The Gentlemen.

Clemson-South Carolina—Clemson should win this one.

Columbia-Michigan—Lou Little's boys.

Cornell-Penn. State—Cornell. Dartmouth-Harvard—Dartmouth.

Florida-Kentucky—Kentucky. Fordham-St. Mary's—A close call, giving the Rams the edge.

Georgia Tech - Vanderbilt—The Rambler's Wreck.

Illinois - Northwestern—Northwestern.

Indiana - Ohio State—Again the Buckeyes.

Manhattan-Detroit—Detroit. Marquette-Michigan State—Hard to tell about the Golden Avalanche, but they look a little better from this corner.

Maryland-Syracuse—Offhand, the Rambler says Maryland.

Minnesota-Purdue—Minnesota, but those Boilermakers may spring a surprise.

Mississippi State-Texas Christian—Another tossed coin says Miss. State.

Navy-Princeton—The Tigers. Nebraska-Oklahoma—The Cornhuskers.

New York University-Georgetown—N. Y. U.

Notre Dame-Pitt—A terrible predicament—Let's pull for the Fighting Irish.

Rice-Texas—The Rambler gambles on Rice.

Southern California-Stanford—A nod at Stanford.

U. C. L. A.-Oregon State—UCLA.

Yale-Rutgers—Old Eli.

Villanova - Boston University—Villanova.

V. M. I.-Richmond—Richmond.
