VOTERS READY FOR ELECTION TUESDAY

County Rallies To Climax On Monday

J. M. Doughton, State Convention Keynote, Will Speak

AT COURT HOUSE

Precinct Meetings Draw Big Crowds—Much Interest Shown

With an expected great rally climaxing the campaign Monday at the Court House, and with unusually large crowds in attendance at previous rally gatherings throughout the county, a record vote in Chowan next Tuesday seems assured. Hon. J. M. Broughton, of Raleigh, keynote at the State Democratic Convention and an orator of parts, will be the principal speaker at Monday's meeting, while tomorrow night Senator Carl Bailey, of Plymouth, another excellent talker, will address the rally at Oscar Bunch's filling station on the Yeopim Road.

Crowds are usually accepted as evidence of the way sentiment is running and of a lively interest in political affairs, and they have been to notch at every one of the meetings County Chairman Warner Evans has been directing since the campaign started.

Even the cold weather failed to hold down the attendance Tuesday night at a big outdoor meeting at Cross Roads. More than 300 people stood out in the biting breeze and listened to a telling, well-delivered talk on the issues of the campaign by Hon. A. P. Godwin, of Gatesville. Mr. Godwin stressed the importance of making every vote count for Roosevelt and the State and County tickets, and dwelt on the many bountiful blessings that had been the portion of the citizens since the administration took hold in 1933.

Miss Ethel Parker, a member of the State executive committee and primary candidate for Senator from this district, also spoke at the Cross Roads meeting, and John W. Graham, as he has on other occasions, explained the proposed constitutional amendments so they could be intelligently understood by the electorate.

Last Friday night, with the weather a little warmer, folks in the Glen section turned out in great numbers, also, and heard A. L. McInnis, of Suffolk, Va., expound the doctrine of Democracy and make an earnest appeal for a straight vote for the entire ticket on Tuesday. Prosecutor W. S. Privott, himself a candidate for re-election, filled in for Mr. Graham on this occasion and discussed the constitutional amendments insofar as they relate to changes intended to ease the burdens of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Evans, who has enthusiastically interested himself in the management (Continued on Page Eight)

Dr. Powell Presents Valuable Picture To Cupola House Museum

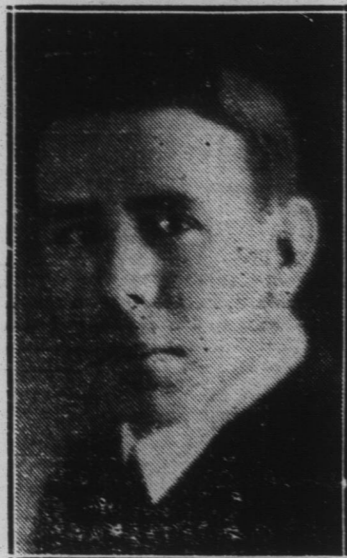

Officials of the Cupola House Museum are much elated over the presentation this week by Dr. J. A. Fowell of a picture taken of a fight in Albemarle Sound during the Civil War. The picture was the property of Mrs. Hugh Warren and those in charge of the Museum on different occasions sought to purchase the rare picture before Mrs. Warren's death.

The Cupola House Association, under which the Museum is managed, will meet shortly to accept the picture and put it on display in the museum. In the meantime it is being carefully preserved by Mrs. W. A. Graham at her home.

Attached to the picture will be the following inscription:

"Taken in 1863"
"This is an original picture taken during the fight between the Confederate Ram 'Albemarle' and Union forces in Albemarle Sound off Sandy Point. The picture was taken by Paymaster J. Woodville Sands a friend and shipmate of my Father then Acting Master, James G. Green, U. S. N. of the U. S. S. 'Hull' which can be seen in the background, being held in reserve. My Father died here in Edenton as a Rear Admiral in 1908."
"(Signed)
MRS. FANNIE G. WARREN."

LAST SPEAKER

HON. J. M. BROUGHTON
Mr. Broughton will be the final speaker in the series of political rallies held by Chowan County Democrats. He will speak at the Chowan Court House Monday night at 8 o'clock.

EIGHTY CONVERTS AVOW NEW FAITH

Baptist Revival Huge Success—Baptisms To-night and Sunday

One of the most successful revival services held in Edenton in many years came to a close Sunday night in the Edenton Baptist Church which resulted in about 80 applying for membership. The services had been in progress two weeks with Dr. J. L. White, of Miami, Florida, preaching. Dr. White attracted large congregations throughout the entire revival, the service Sunday night practically filling the spacious church both downstairs and on the balcony.

A special meeting for men was held Sunday afternoon when the first floor was crowded with men from Edenton and surrounding territory. Dr. White at this time delivered a powerful sermon on "The Prodigal Son," after which the majority of those present renewed their loyalty to the church and the cause of Christ.

Rev. E. L. Wells, pastor of the church, is especially happy over the results of the revival meeting, for in conjunction with the addition of this large group to his church he will on Sunday complete his twenty-sixth year as pastor of the local church. No program has been arranged for the occasion, for nothing could give the veteran preacher more pleasure than to see members added to the church and his membership greatly revived following the series of meetings.

Those who presented themselves for baptism will be divided into two groups, a baptismal service being held in the church tonight (Thursday) for the men and boys, while on Sunday night a similar service will be held for the baptism of girls and women.

Rev. Mr. Wells has designated Sunday as Ordinance Day in his church at which time the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service and the baptismal ceremony taking place at night.

Coon Hunters On Air Saturday Afternoon

The "Chowan Coon Hunters," string band of Edenton, will render a 15-minute program over radio station WEED, Rocky Mount, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

This band has furnished music at many entertainments throughout the county and many admirers no doubt will tune in on the program.

MASONS MEET TONIGHT

After missing two meetings due to the Baptist revival, Unanimity Lodge will hold a regular communication tonight at 8 o'clock. Important business has accumulated during the two weeks and a good attendance is requested.

FOREHAND SEEKS RELEASE BY WAY OF HABEAS CORPUS

War Veteran Held Here Said to Be Mentally Unfit

ODD ANGLES

Raleigh Asylum Head Reverses Himself In Written Memos

Chowan war veterans are following with some interest the case of one of their Legionnaire compatriots, Jesse Oscar Forehand, at present being held in jail here awaiting settlement of his appeal for release under a writ of habeas corpus. Lawyers interested in his behalf, as well as others opposed, left yesterday to argue the action before Superior Court Judge J. Paul Frizzelle at Manteo, and it is expected a decision will soon be reached in the matter.

The case has several odd angles, none the least of which are conflicting memoranda as filed with the court, submitted by Dr. Julius W. Ashby, of the State Hospital for the Insane. One of these memoranda penned some time ago sets forth that Forehand was mentally competent and fit to be at large, while a subsequent memo, in the shape of a letter from the same author, received on Monday shows a complete reversal of opinion by Dr. Ashby.

Council Pocahontas May Be Organized By Local Red Men

Interest in the organization of a Council of Pocahontas in Edenton was revived Monday night when Chowan Tribe of Red Men received a letter from Mrs. Lillie Pearl Smith of Wilmington, Great Pocahontas, urging the Tribe to take immediate steps in the organization of the women's branch of the Red Men Order.

At present the local Tribe has over 150 members and no legitimate reason can be seen by Mrs. Smith why a Council could not be maintained here. Practically all present Monday night were in accord with the idea and a committee was appointed to canvass wives of Red Men in an effort to secure enough to warrant the organization of a Council. This committee will make a report of their work in about two weeks.

The Tribe is at present in the midst of a membership drive new candidates being presented at practically every meeting.

ROTARIANS DINE IN HERTFORD AT INTER CITY MEET

Shep Bryan of Dunn Is Principal Speaker Tuesday Night

GOOD TRICKS

Rotary Members Crowd Dining Room of Hertford Hotel

Rotarians from Edenton, Hertford and Elizabeth City, together with several members of the Dunn Rotary Club, met in Hotel Hertford, Hertford, Tuesday night, the occasion being the inter-city meeting of the former three clubs. A goodly number of members from each club were on hand, filling to capacity the dining room of the hotel.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. Mora S. Bulla, of Elizabeth City, Judge Walter H. Oakey, Jr., of the Hertford Club, welcomed the Rotarians with John A. Holmes, of Edenton, making the response. An interesting feature of the meeting was a sleight of hand performance by T. R. Hood of the Dunn Club, while Louis Anderson of Hertford led with the singing of a number of peppy Rotary songs.

The principal address was made by Shep Bryan, of Dunn, candidate for Governor of the 57th District.

"The highest happiness is gained in service to our fellowman," said the speaker. "I have noticed that Rotary never dies. Once it is established it takes root and grows."

"I believe that Rotary has found and appropriated the truth, the ultimate truth, as to the principle of life by which to live and to let live, in our community, in our business life, in all the world, at home and abroad. The principle I am speaking of is, I believe, in line and in conformity with the apparent plan of God Almighty."

"It seems to me that Divine Providence has decreed that in human nature investments made in the service of our fellows, which service is (Continued on Page Eight)

State And National Fight In Last Lap

STATE LEADER

CLYDE R. HOEY

Chairman Wallace Winborne Forecasts Victory For Ticket

ASKS FULL VOTE

Warns Against "Stay-At-Homes"—Heavy Registration

"This week tells the tale," declared State Democratic Chairman J. Wallace Winborne in Raleigh yesterday, as he added "It is the most important week of the campaign."

All over the nation and right here in Chowan County this attitude is bearing fruit by the marked interest being shown by the voters. The daily press, with its diversity of straw vote flub dub, puts Roosevelt and Garner far in the lead for a victorious conclusion on Tuesday, and in North Carolina, of course, there is no uncertainty as to success for Hoey and the rest of the ticket.

Of course northern states, or a few of them, are being termed "doubtful," but that merely means guesswork. Four years ago there were a score of states in this "doubtful" column until the morning after election, and then the tremendous Roosevelt landslide proved that those who talked "doubtful," were simply doubters.

This year the doubters seem few and far between. A poll was taken recently of the national correspondents with headquarters at Washington, and all but two of them and those two bitter in their animosity toward the President, declared Roosevelt to be a certain winner.

Of course here in Chowan there are no doubters, and cannot be. Conditions have so improved since Roosevelt entered office as to make uncertainty a subject of laughter. Chowan residents are not ingrates. They have had much to be thankful for during the past four years and they understand full well to whom the credit is due.

Neither are they an unintelligent class of voters. They have had an opportunity at the movies and over the radio and in the public press to compare and draw distinction between the platforms of both parties and between the calibre of the rival candidates.

Just by way of local experting the editor of The Herald ventures to remind those who care to read that never in the history of the United States has a President been elected from west of the Mississippi River. Hoover got catalogued, of course, as a Californian, but he merely went there to open his home and throw that bluff of nativity a few weeks before his election. He was strictly a Washington or London man. The nearest approach to a westerner or middle westerner landing the Presidency was in 1860.

New Hqtel Coffee Shop Opens Sunday At Noon

A brand new coffee shop will be opened to the public at 12 o'clock noon Sunday, when W. R. Horton will abandon the dining room at the Hotel Joseph Hewes and conduct in its stead a first class coffee shop in the rooms at the western end of the hotel building on King street.

Mr. Horton, proprietor of the hotel, has for the past few weeks been making alterations and installing equipment for the new restaurant and when completed will be better able to serve the traveling public as well as those who make their home at the hotel. The rear of the spacious room has been partitioned off for a kitchen and 19 tables will be attractively arranged for the use of patrons. Besides, the new shop will be equipped with a counter where ten people can be served.

Due to the location, being easily seen from the street, Mr. Horton is of the opinion that the coffee shop will attract many travelers who heretofore went elsewhere to eat and that this branch of his hotel business will greatly increase through the change.

On account of the change the dining room at the hotel will be closed all day Saturday and no breakfast will be served Sunday morning.

ELIZABETH CITY TRIPS E. H. S. 7-6

Hopes For Championship Fade By Losing Heartbreaker

Edenton High School's hopes for a chance at the Eastern Class B football championship faded last Friday when by a single point the local boys were defeated by the Elizabeth City High School on the latter's field 7 to 6. The game was largely attended and packed with thrills, resulting in one of the best high school football games seen in many a day.

Despite a heavier team, the Edenton boys played their opponents to a standstill until the final quarter when heavy backfield men plunged through the stubborn Edenton line to score a touchdown and won the game by crashing the line for the extra point.

Edenton scored early in the game when Melvin Layton intercepted a forward pass, scampering over half the length of the field with several Yellow Jackets at his heels. A pass was tried for the extra point which failed and at the same time lost the game.

The entire Edenton team played a bang-up game, with Melvin Layton being the most consistent ground-gainer. He played a wonderful game, being called upon for the most part to carry the ball and time after time going to the ground only after carrying several Elizabeth City tacklers for some distance.

For Elizabeth City, Creeper Crank was the most dangerous player at returning punts and sweeping end runs while by rushing McHarney and Sawyer were the most effective, their weight gradually wearing down the much lighter Edenton linemen.

The Edenton team on Friday will try their strength and skill against the Williamston High School team on Hicks Field. The game is scheduled to start at 3:30 and according to the dope another thriller will be furnished football fans.

Coach Holton and his boys are undismayed at the defeat at the hands of Elizabeth City, realizing before tackling the neighboring team that they were out-weighted and would be (Continued on Page Eight)
