The roll call was enlivened by the reciting of short Christmas poems.

The treasurer reported the federated dues paid, and $5.80 to Selig.

Most of the time was taken up with plans for a Christmas party to the husbands of the Club and to the teachers of the Chowan High School. This party is to be given on Thursday evening, December 17th, in the Odd Fellows Hall near by Cisco.

After the singing of "Silent Night," Mrs. Jno. T. Byrum gave a literary program on Christmas, the outstanding part of which was the reading from Ben Hur of the Birth of Christ by Mrs. B. W. Evans.

In the hurry of the hour, Mrs. Baumgardner served ambrosia, mints and cookies.

Next meeting to be on January 12,

1937, with Mrs. A. S. Bush. M. W. WINBORNE.
