AT ST. PAUL'S

By REV. C. AYLETT ASHBY
At the congregational meeting Julien Wood, George Hoskins and E. T. Rawlinson were elected to the vestry, making the vestry for 1937 consist of the above, and E. R. Conger, Senior Warden; D. M. Warren, Junior Warden and secretary; Fred P. Wood, treasurer; M. P. Whichard, John W. Graham, Joe H. Conger, J. Augustus Moore, Wm. L. Hart and George C. Wood.

St. Mary's branch of the Woman's Auxiliary elected as their officers for 1937: President, Mrs. R. P. Badham; vice president, Mrs. Rupert Goodwin; secretary, Mrs. M. P. Whichard; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. I. Hart; missionary treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Summerell; thank offering treasurer, Mrs. B. W. Hathaway, and treasurer of box work, Mrs. Fred P. Wood.

St. Mary's Gift and Novelty Shop is now operating. Have you been? It is worth your time. It will be a fine place for the women to congregate even if not disposed to buy. All members of the Auxiliary are supporting the shop. Come in the shop and sit a while.

Sunday afternoon at 3 we had the Christmas celebration of the Sunday School. Meredith Jones spoke on "What Christmas Means to Me"; William Shepard read the lesson. Miss Louise Coke, Mesdames Oscar Elliott and Wm. B. Shepard, assisted by our assistant superintendent, D. M. Warren, had charge. Eugene Warren made the manger. We trust our entire congregation remembers the poor with something substantial; We are learning that Christmas is not just a time of getting, but of giving. "God so loved the world that He gave". Sutton's Drug Store gave St. Paul's the new sign board you see in use. We thank them for it.

We are sending no Christmas cards locally this year. It seems to us unnecessary to send greetings to those we meet on the streets. We do extend to the members of this parish and our friends the felicitations of the season, trusting that they enjoy a genuine Christian Christmas, which is the very best that can be hoped for.

Our canvass did not meet budget requirements. The vestry is asking that you give your pledge for 1937 a reconsideration. See if you can raise it. You may take this up with any member of the vestry. Monday was St. Thomas Day. He was one of the Apostles.

Midnight service Christmas eve. Service Christmas Day at 11 A. M. Our Church is beautiful for Christmas; decorated by a committee of the auxiliary.

The Auxiliary sent greetings to the Rev. R. B. Drane, D. D. and extended its best wishes to Mrs. Henry Bond, upon the occasion of birthdays this month. Mrs. W. H. Winborne has agreed to attend to the purchase of a building for services at Small's Cross Roads. We believe we will soon have a place up there. Mrs. Winborne will attend to this. She knows how.

The children are using the duplex envelopes well. Their use has increased the offerings. In the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless you everyone".

The public invited to all services at St. Paul's. All seats free.
