West Chowan B. T. U. Banquet At Ahoskie

On December the 15th, the B. T. U. in the West Chowan Association, under the direction of D. J. Robinson, attempted something that they have never done before, that of having a banquet.

For some time there had been a feeling that a social hour was needed for the Associational officers, directors, B. Y. P. U. leaders, and senior officers and pastors as guests. So on Tuesday evening at the Ahoskie Baptist Church this event was put into action, and was responded to with whole-hearted enthusiasm by the B. Y. P. U. groups in the Association.

The program for the evening went as follows: Invocation, Lowell Sadman; Introduction of pastors and guests, John Bunn; Fellowship in Song, led by Lloyd Godwin; The West Chowan B. T. U. Family, Rev. D. J. Robinson; Response, Miss Carmen Morgan; Singing of Christmas Carols, led by Lloyd Godwin; Jokes, Rev. R. R. Jackson; Readings, Miss Maxine Hudgins; Introduction of Speakers, Rev. D. J. Robinson; Address, "The Challenge of Youth," by Rev. John Link; Benediction, Norman L. Blythe.

Miss Eloise Miller was toast mistress.

President Roosevelt Greets Boy Scouts

That our great President Franklin D. Roosevelt, is interested in youth of our land may be gleaned from his message to Boy Scouts of America just prior to the Christmas holiday. Said Mr. Roosevelt:

"Yours has been a worthy place upon the pages of which are courage, dependability, faith, and service. You have won a place in the life of the young America. As today you are Boy Scouts of America, so years to come may you be the men to whom your country can look for the realization of unselfish devotion and civic righteousness. I wish you all a Merry Christmas."

CASE NOL PROSSED

Only one case was docketed in Recorder's Court Tuesday morning and that was not prosessed by the State. It was an action against Alfred Mayo, Junius Moore and D. Hassell, all colored, charged with stealing chickens from J. L. Wiggins.
