COMMISSIONERS MEET AT COUNTY HOME ON MAY 27

The County Commissioners will meet at the County Home on Thursday, May 27, for their quarterly inspection of the home. According to the report made to the commissioners Monday by Dr. M. P. Whichard, county health officer, the home is in good condition as is also the jail and court house. Dr. Whichard, however, did recommend that the latter building be swept and dusted.

MASONS MEET TONIGHT

Local Masons have been very active this week to register a large attendance at the regular meeting of Unanimity Lodge tonight. The lodge is in the midst of a very close attendance contest and members on both sides of a divided membership are working hard to win a banquet at the expense of the losers. At present the side captained by W. Jim Daniels holds a lead of only two over G. A. Helms and his cohorts. The meeting was called off last week due to the scheduled game of donkey baseball.

HOSTS AT BUFFET SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beasley entertained a number of guests at a buffet supper Friday evening at their home in Colerain. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conger, Dr. and Mrs. W. I.
