

O. H. Brown Installed President Of Rotary

John Graham Presented Past President's Button

Oscar H. Brown was installed as president of the Edenton Rotary Club at last Thursday's meeting, with the brief ceremony being conducted by John W. Graham, retiring president. In accepting the presidency Mr. Brown made a plea for the cooperation of every member of the Club and urged upon the members to use their influence upon former members to re-instate in the Club.

In stressing attendance at the meetings Mr. Brown asked the Rotarians to strive to have at least one 100 per cent meeting each month, suggesting the first Thursday in each month. "If we accomplish this," he said, "there is a strong possibility of accidentally having more than one perfect meeting in some of the months."

As a token of appreciation for his services as president the past year, John W. Graham was presented with a Rotary Past President's button, the presentation being made by Secretary John A. Holmes. In giving up the office Mr. Graham, in behalf of the new president, urged members to cooperate with Mr. Brown, especially stressing attendance and payment of dues, citing every member who was in arrears and the amount owing the Club.

Sense and Nonsense

BOUTONNIERE

Let me keep just one little memory To cherish against the day, when, alone, I will stand on the brink of eternity As on the edge of a garden full blown.

Give me one small flower to wear in my heart— Not bravado's garlands to hide my pain— And let me wear my one little flower A memory gayly and not in vain.

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THE Worst Joke I heard today was told to me by an English actor. It is a little illustration of English tact. A lady was engaging a new Butler, and she impressed on each applicant the importance of tact.

"The great question is, have you tact? It needs great tact to handle my house. We have all kinds of guests."

"Lady, I am noted for my tact," replied the applicant.

"Well, will you give me any illustration of some of your tact?"

"Well, Madam, in my last place I was among various duties supposed to clean the nickleware on the bathroom faucets. One day on entering a bathroom, there, right before my very eyes, was a Lady standing just ready to enter the tub. What did I do, Madam?"

Just said, "I beg your pardon, Sir, and withdrew."
