Local Church Expected To Be Filled to Capacity Sunday

Plans have been completed for the Bertie County Fifth Sunday song ser-vice which will be rendered in the Edenton Baptist Church Sunday afrnoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

The fifth Sunday song service is in s eighth year of existence and ins in interest and attendance with each subsequent service until w churches in the various communiies where it is held are unable to acnodate the crowds attending. With favorable weather on Sunday, the local church will no doubt be filled

The idea of a fifth Sunday sing dawned upon Rev. George W. Burch ack in 1931 when he was pastor of Ross, Elm Grove, Green's Cross and Capehart's Baptist churches in Bertie. feeling that there was room for much improvement in church music in his immediate field. Late in that year he asked members of his four churches to meet for a song service the fifth Sunday in January, 1932, with the dea that the song service should be eld each fifth Sunday afternoon at one of the churches in his field. However, at that time, road conditions were deplorable and lacking in publicity the first of these services attracted only a small crowd. Location Decided at a P. T. Elizabeth City

Following a report at last week's Rotary meeting by C. L. McCullers relative to a music festival to be held in some town in the Albemarle on Sunday, April 15, President Oscar Brown appointed John Graham and William Perkins to assist Mr. Mc-Cullers in having the affair held in Edenton. McCullers informed the club that a committee had been appointed in each county with instructions to report at a meeting to be held in Elizabeth City Monday night.

It is the purpose of the Albemarle Music Festival Association to stage the festival in the town which appears most anxious to have it and has adequate facilities. Rotarians feel that with the spacious Armory available in case of inclement weather and plenty of outdoor space that Edenton is qualified to ask for the festival and it was

Sponsors Amateur Acts Friday Night

Group Equips Athletic Teams and Buys Typewriters

The Parent-Teachers Association of Colerain will sponsor an amateur hour at the Colerain school building Friday night, January 27th, at 8 o'clock. This feature promises to be very entertaining and after this portion of the program, games will be played consisting of Chinese checkers, bing and target shooting.

A prize of at least $5.00 will be awarded the winner of the amateur show, with the audience acting as judges. Prizes will also be given to the highest scorer in various games played.

Any one interested in entering the amateur show should notify Principal J. J. Beale before Friday night. Any type of decent entertainment will be entered in competition for the grand prize.

A small fee will be charged to see this entertainment, the proceeds going to the P. T. A. The Association has purchased new uniforms for the football and basketball teams as well as four typewriters for the commercial department. Much money will be needed to pay for these items and for this reason it is hoped that the enterfainment will be well attended.

Local Firemen Favor Expansion Protection

Edenton's firemen are right much concerned over a proposed bill to be introduced in the Legislature whereby volunteer firemen will be allowed to fight fires outside the boundaries of municipalities and at the same time be entitled to compensation in case of injury under the terms of the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act. At present this act does not
